Flames Threaten to Wipe Out Constantinople; Destroy Entire District

Bombardment of Adrianople Sunday; Enver Bey Denies Attempt on His Life

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The conflagration which threatened to wipe out most of Constantinople was under control at an early hour today. More than 200 houses and shops in the district surrounding the great Mosque of St. Sophia were destroyed. The Mosque itself appears to have suffered no serious harm.

A heavy bombardment of Adrianople occurred on Sunday. It is said that the situation around the city is unchanged. A Bulgarian column is advancing through Belgrade toward the west of Derkos lake, in the direction of Ormanli, and is fortifying the heights west of Sivaskouli.

NEWS MESSAGER.
LONDON, Feb. 18.—News of the Balkan war is becoming extremely meager. Advice from Constantinople are scheduled to long delays and strict censorship. One of the cable routes has been interrupted near Pera for several days.

Enver Bey, the Young Turk leader, who was reported yesterday to have been severely wounded by would-be assassins, telegraphed to friends today denying the reports.

TENSION EXISTS.
LONDON, Feb. 18.—The tension between Roumania and Bulgaria in connection with the Balkan situation has become acute. The European powers, however, have now taken steps, both at Sofia and Bucharest, to lessen the friction, and an offer of mediation between the disputants is pending.

Three of Dr. Araujo's Assassins Are Shot

Punishment Is Meted Out Before Large Crowd; Three Others Still at Large.

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, Feb. 18.—Thirteen of the assassins of Dr. Manuel E. Araujo, were shot by platoons of soldiers this morning. The shooting took place in the presence of a large crowd. A council of war on Saturday condemned to death seven persons who had taken an active part in the crime. Four of them were arrested, but the others still are at large. One of the prisoners was allowed a reprieve in the expectation that he would divulge further particulars of the plot.

Suffragettes Get Hard Labor Sentence

Zelia Emerson of Michigan and Sylvia Pankhurst Must Work.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Miss Zelia Emerson, the militant suffragette of Jackson, Mich., who is carrying on a campaign of window-smashing in the East End of London, in company with Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, was again arrested today. She was sentenced to two months at hard labor.

Miss Emerson and her companion broke all the windows of the Liberal Association's building at Bow street last night. Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was also sentenced to two months at hard labor.

Stratton Declares He Has Been Told He Will Lose Place

Collector of the Port Abandons Hope of Again Being Named.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Frederick S. Stratton, for twelve years collector of the port of San Francisco, announced today that he would not be re-appointed. He was a candidate, but information from Washington, he said, had led him to abandon all hope of success.

Prominent Democratic candidates are Charles S. Fay of San Francisco, formerly secretary of Mayor Jas. D. Phelan; John O. Davis of Berkeley, chairman of the Democratic State central committee, and Robert Dewitt of Yreka, former chairman of the committee.

Blood Flows in Capital Corridors

Strained Relations Between McDevitt and Walsh Ends in Fight.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 18.—The threatening atmosphere of the bill stage room in the Senate chamber of the Capitol, which has approached nearer the boiling point during the last few days, flowed upward to a blood heat this morning and then quieted to clock-like serenity following a lively fist encounter in the Capitol corridors between Andrew McDevitt, chief bill filer, and Wm. Walsh, one of the men under him. Most of the men are from San Francisco and there is said to have existed before they came to Sacramento a bitter feud. Fists were flying and the blood was trickling merrily when Secretary Walter Parrish of the Senate arrived on the scene.

Walsh is said to have finished second best with McDevitt, still nominally and in fact, chief of the bill filers. The timely arrival of Parrish prevented further hostilities.

Jury Visits Scene Of Marsh Murder

Doubt Exists Whether Shoe Man Was Killed at Lonely Spot.

SALEM, Mass., Feb. 18.—The jury today visited the supposed scene of the crime before the trial of Wm. A. Dorr of Stockton, Cal., charged with the murder of Geo. E. Marsh, the late millionaire. Marsh's body was found in a lonely spot near the West Lynn Boulevard, but there is doubt whether the murder was committed there or his body was removed thence in an automobile after the shooting.

The state alleges that Marsh and Dorr were driving together in a motor car on the day of the murder. It is contended that Dorr hoped to profit by the death of Marsh, who was the trustee of a fund held for Miss Orpha Marsh, an aunt of the defendant.

Delaney Withdraws From Mayor's Race

Only One Candidate Up for Mayor of Alameda.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 18.—Fred N. Delaney, candidate for mayor of this city, announced today that he had withdrawn from the race. Delaney gives as his reason sickness in his family. This leaves but one candidate, Frank Otto, a San Francisco attorney, in the field.

Morgan Improves Rapidly in Health

Cablegram to Son Says Financier Is "Feeling Better."

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—J. P. Morgan continued to improve in health today, according to a cablegram sent by him from Cairo, Egypt, to his son, J. P. Morgan, Jr. The cablegram said Morgan was "feeling better and much stronger today."

WORLD MOURNS FOR JOAQUIN MILLER

ASHES TO REST ON HIS BELOVED 'HIGHTS'

THIS IS THE LAST PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN OF JOAQUIN MILLER, POET OF THE SIERRA, WHO DIED YESTERDAY; BELOW IS JUANITA MILLER, WHO HAD BEEN IN CONSTANT ATTENDANCE AT THE BEDSIDE OF HER FATHER FOR MANY MONTHS.

Memorial Rites for Poet Planned for Sunday at Late Home

In the rustic two-room cottage on the Fruitvale "Hights," where Joaquin Miller breathed his last yesterday the body of the celebrated poet rests today, clad in the characteristic corduroy boots which made him such a picturesque figure. A simple black shroud covers the body, revealing only the wan features and flowing beard of the Sierra bard.

Tomorrow morning the widow and daughter, Miss Juanita Miller, will gather at the bier with a few intimate friends and pay their last respects. The body will then be conveyed to the Oakland Crematory and at 10 o'clock there will be a simple prayer service, conducted by the Rev. William D. Strong, pastor of the First Unitarian Church.

PLAN MEMORIAL SERVICE.
The body, still clad in the poet's favorite apparel, will then be cremated. It is the wish of both widow and daughter that tomorrow's services be private and that a public memorial service be held on Sunday morning at the First Unitarian Church.

The ashes of Joaquin Miller will be interred at a proper time at the Hights, where formal memorial ceremonies will be held for the public. It is the wish of Mrs. Miller that the Bohemian Club and the Press Club shall have charge of these ceremonies, of which due notice will be given.

A handful of the ashes will be scattered to the winds by the poet's daughter in order that they may mingle with the soil which hides the remains of the poet's first wife and those of his daughter by the same wife, Mrs. Mauda Miller McCormick, who is also buried there.

.. OAKLAND ..

By JOAQUIN MILLER.

Thou Rose-land! Oakland! thou mine own!
Thou Sun-land! Leaf-land! Land of seas,
Wide crested in walls of stone!
Thy lion's mane is to the breeze:
Thy tawny sunlit lion leaps
Leap forward as the lion leaps!

And thou, the lion's whelp begot
Of Argonauts, in fearful strength
And supple beauty yieldst naught!
Thine arm is as a river's length.
Thy reach is foremost! Thou shalt be
The throne queen of this vast, west sea!

Yet here sits peace; and rest sits here.
These wide-boughed oaks, thy house wise men;
The student and the sage austere;
The men of wondrous thought and ken.
Here men of God in holy guise
Invoke the peace of Paradise.

Be this my home till some fair star
Stooms earthward and shall beckon me:
For surely God-land lies not far
From these Greek heights and this great sea.
I extend my love, from this way,
Not far along lies ready.

ASSEMBLE SOLDIERS IN FIGHTING FORCE

2000 U. S. Marines to Be Sent to Concentration Camp at Guantanamo

Expeditionary Troops at Galveston May Be Moved at Short Notice

BULLETIN.
BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 18.—A force of cavalry and infantry left Matamoros, opposite here, early this morning, presumably to meet Mexican federal soldiers, said to be advancing on Matamoros from the interior. The Matamoros garrison went over to the Diaz cause yesterday. A general alarm in Matamoros today summoned all the city's forces in preparation for defense.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Further preparations for co-operation between the army and navy for any exigency in the Mexican situation went forward today, with the assembling of 2000 marines at Newport News and Philadelphia to be transported to a concentration camp at Guantanamo. At Guantanamo they will be 70 hours from Vera Cruz.

While a veil of secrecy was thrown about preparations for mobilizing an army expeditionary force at Galveston from the troops now on the border, it was known that troops as far north as Leavenworth, Kas., had been ordered in readiness.

ORDER FOR TRANSPORTS.
The order last night to send two of the army transports at Newport News to Galveston disclosed that the general staff was actually preparing for possibility of a movement from the latter point.

This would leave the First brigade of the first army division, already under marching orders without ships, but it is assumed that the War Department has arrangements with merchant lines under a mail subsidy. Officials were kept in suspense by the continued censorship at Mexico City and official dispatches were brief.

CONNECTICUT SAILS.
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The battleship Connecticut, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, steamed out of the Brooklyn navy yard today, bound for the United States naval station at Guantanamo, Cuba, where emergency forces, including 2000 marines, are being concentrated, while developments in Mexico are being watched.

Although the big battleship was in dock when orders were received yesterday from Washington for her departure, she was delayed several minutes trying to get through the door.

The suffragettes were not aware the President was in the crowd, and continued to the Assembly chamber, where a hearing was held on the suffrage question.

The Governor stole away to an office on the top floor of the building and dictated letters without being disturbed or discovered.

Blood Transfusion Proves No Success

Three Asphyxiation Victims Die Despite Operation to Save Them.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—None of the victims of gas asphyxiation, who have been aided with the transfusion of new blood have survived recently at the Central Emergency Hospital. Three operations of this nature were performed on Saturday. Two of the victims died yesterday, and the third, S. A. Hill, of 1015 Pine street, who was on his way to leave in the Ballin boat, died this morning at the German Hospital. His brother, who took him to the hospital, was not to save him on Saturday, was up and around today.

Government Troops, Badly Beaten, Quit the Capital of Mexico

Many Are Killed When Rebels Close In; Peace Is Now in Sight

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 18.—President Madero agreed today in principle to the appointment of a provisional president. The announcement that Madero had agreed to the appointment of a provisional president was made on the authority of the Mexican foreign minister, Senor Lazcaruan.

The news of Madero's decision became known in the early forenoon. At that hour the position of the government was weakening and the federal troops apparently were becoming demoralized.

The situation of the government forces became so critical that one strong detachment of federal troops retired from the capital before noon and marched in the direction of Cuernavaca, forty miles to the southward.

FIRING DURING NIGHT.
Firing went on practically the whole night from both the federal and rebel positions. In the total darkness it was impossible to ascertain whether any advantage had been gained by either side.

At dawn the artillery duel died down gradually and finally ceased at 8:15. No reason for the cessation of hostilities was known. Up to 8:15 the fighting had not been renewed.

The tenth day of the civil war in the capital found virtually no change in the positions of the antagonists, but it was understood that the federalists had received reinforcements.

NO TRUCE IS ARRANGED.
It was thought that a break in the battle meant merely a change of tactics by the federal command. It was stated in authoritative quarters that no truce had been arranged.

The government troops today obtained possession of the Y. M. C. A. building, which had been in the hands of the rebels since the second day's fighting.

WILL THROW DYNAMITE.
The leaders of the government troops are preparing for aggressive action against the rebel positions. It is said they intend to use dynamite grenades and mortars throwing dynamite shells. This is virtually what was announced by President Madero last night.

On rebel battery has been placed in a position west of Nizca street, within a block of the United States embassy, and another four blocks east of the embassy.

Up to 8 o'clock, however, these batteries as well as the federal cannon had maintained silence and everybody in the vicinity waited anxiously for what was to take place.

About a half century ago Queen Victoria ordered Ridgways, the world's first tea merchants, of London, to prepare for her personal use, a blend of ever so many different kinds of tea, which perfectly suited her Majesty's taste. This tea was named "Her Majesty's Blend" and it was used by Queen Victoria, regularly, during the last 45 years of her reign.

Exactly the same tea has been sold for a half century, and is now sold to be the most discriminating tea drinkers in the world, including the Emperor of Germany, the King of Bulgaria and tens of thousands of others in Europe and America.

Sherry's, Fifth Avenue, New York, used "Her Majesty's Blend" exclusively for the five o'clock teas of New York's four hundred and over twenty years.

The leading American grocers now sell it.

CHINESE BOY IS

ACQUITTED OF MURDER

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Wong Shee, the Chinese boy arrested more than a year ago for murder and twice tried in the local superior courts, was released by order of Judge Lawlor this morning. The accused was taken into custody following a feud between white boys and Chinese boys, January 21, 1912, when as a culmination to the trouble, James Kane was shot and killed and Edgar M. Haupt wounded. Wong Shee was accused of the killing and subsequently was acquitted in Judge Dunne's court. He was then booked for assault on a woman in the Haupt case, and the trial in Judge Lawlor's court resulted in a dismissal. Today the case was again on the calendar, and the court consented to its dismissal, giving as his reason the previous acquittal and the failure to agree by the jury. One result of the shooting was the complete cessation of fighting between white and Chinese boys on the edge of the Oriental quarter.

DR. COOK UNABLE TO GET LIBEL WARRANT

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—No jury could decide the North Pole controversy, asserted Deputy District Attorney Blair yesterday in declining to issue a warrant charging criminal libel at the instance of Dr. Frederick A. Cook. A Pasadena newspaper recently commented satirically on the exploits of Doctor Cook, and he declined to have the editor punished.

MADERO ADMITS DEFEAT; AGREES TO STEP OUT

Part of Federal Force Reported to be Fleeing From Capital

can, who is the manager of an important mechanical works here, was struck in his right forearm by three bullets today while walking on Colima street. He ran into a skirmish between detachments of rebels and federal forces.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock the rebel artillery came into action only casually. Neither side had yet made any use of mortar fire, as had been threatened.

FIRE BECOMES HOTTER.
About 10 o'clock the firing became hotter and the big guns of the rebels at the arsenal were brought into play on the National Palace. The palace itself was threatened with an attack by bodies of rebels, who had made a sortie.

Desultory cannon fire from both the rebel and federal positions was still in progress at noon. The belief, however, was gaining ground that a settlement of some kind would be reached before night.

Many of Federal Forces Are Killed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—A large number of Mexican federals have been killed during heavy fighting in the vicinity of the American Embassy at Mexico City. Many bullets have entered the Embassy building, but only slight damage has been done.

General Diaz and his rebel command may soon be in full control of the residential section of Mexico City, according to a dispatch from Ambassador Wilson. Diaz is reported to have advanced his line to the corner of Insurgentes and Niza streets, apparently with the intention of attacking a near-by battery.

Federal firing was vigorous throughout yesterday, but Ambassador Wilson reports he was unable to discover that it had inflicted any damage to the Citadel, although most damage was done to other buildings and many people were killed.

NO INFRACTION OF RULES.
Secretary Knox told President Taft and the cabinet today that notwithstanding all the fierce fighting in the City of Mexico for the last eight days, there had been no infraction of the rules of civilized warfare or of the principles of international law as would warrant any interference by the United States.

The responsiveness of both President Madero and General Diaz, he said, in the suggestion of Ambassador Wilson, in his capacity as dean of the diplomatic corps in the Mexican capital, have been so complete and satisfactory as to justify officials in their opinion for the strictly neutral attitude observed by the United States.

It was noted yesterday that the federal batteries that threatened to draw the fire of the rebels upon the legation quarter were promptly removed by General Huerta upon the request of the American ambassador, who also has been given the largest powers and freedom of movement in extending aid to Americans and other foreigners within the fighting line.

EUROPE APPROVES SITUATION.
Apparently the policy adopted by the United States in dealing with the Mexican situation has met with the approval of the European powers. During the last week Secretary Knox has talked with several of the ambassadors. In no instance has there been a disposition to criticize the administration for not intervening.

It was declared by administration officials that there was no inconsistency between the entertainment of this purpose of non-intervention and the steady progress of the movements of concentration of ships, soldiers and marines for the last 24 hours and that these measures are not designed to meet existing conditions in Mexico, but only to guard against the possibility of an unexpected and grave condition that might place the safety of foreigners in Mexico quite beyond the ability of the detestable government of the country to insure.

It is expected that as a further development in the program of preparation ness there will be additional orders issued for the preparation for transportation of at least two more cavalry regiments now in Texas, and several companies of Coast artillery intended to be used as infantry in the first stages of an expedition, and later as garrisons for any fortification that might have to be occupied.

The four battleships of the Atlantic fleet under repair in the Atlantic coast navy yards are expected to follow the Connecticut, which sailed early this morning from New York for Quantango, which will give Rear-Admiral Badger 15 battleships at that point without the four ships he has already sent to the gulf coast of Mexico. When these vessels have taken today from League Island the commander-in-chief will be in position to meet any possible demand for naval forces either afloat or ashore at short notice.

DETAILS ARE MEAGER.
Official reports today give only meager details of developments throughout Mexico. An attempt to arouse anti-American agitation in Nogales was suppressed by the governor of Sonora.

Consular officers report little change in the border city of Nuevo Laredo, which the rebels still hold. The revolutionists have not molested private property there and American interests so far have been treated fairly.

Mail railroad and telegraph communication have been cut off between Matamoros and the interior.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, second secretary of the embassy at Mexico City, returning to his post from leave of absence, has been ordered to return to his post from leave of absence, has been ordered to return to his post from leave of absence.

The Mexican embassy gave out for the following official telegram received in regard to the breaking of the armistice in Mexico City:

The cause of the breaking of the armistice was that the rebels took advantage of it to try to install a piece of artillery at the corner of Victoria and Balderas streets. The federal artillerymen, through excess of scruples and gentlemanly conduct, did not reply to the rebel fire, and in respect to the armistice the rebels opened fire just as soon as they had installed their artillery, in this way violating all laws of war and honor.

For this reason firing recommenced and operations will be pushed until the rebels are completely subdued.

Federal troops were withdrawn from all exposed points last night and concentrated near the National Palace, which has been placed in charge of General Blanquet's command, according to a state department report today.

REFUGEES AT VERA CRUZ.
Consul Canada at Vera Cruz reported today that 200 American refugees and several hundred other foreigners had arrived from Mexico City. Many more were pouring into the city, some in a destitute condition.

Canada, through a committee, has raised enough money to feed the destitute for two days.

Hundreds of Americans and other foreigners desirous of leaving Mexico City are reports because continued firing makes it impossible for them to make the necessary preparations.

Termination of their armistice Sunday afternoon prevented many from fleeing to Vera Cruz. The trains that departed for that city just before the resumption of hostilities were packed with women and children.

With sickness and famine confronting the people of Mexico City, in consequence of ten days of street fighting, the White and Red Cross organizations have been disbanded owing to their internal political intrigues.

Ambassador Wilson has established an embassy relief organization.

Frown on Reports of U. S. Intervention

NOGALES, Arizona, Feb. 18.—Anti-American feeling on both sides of the line here took form last yesterday in offers of a volunteer military organization made to the Sonora State government. A

U. S. Machine Gun Stolen in Night by Rebel Troops

EL PASO, Feb. 18.—A machine gun of the Thirtieth cavalry platoon at Hachita, N. M., disappeared Sunday night, according to reliable reports received at this place today. It is believed that Mexican rebels came over the border and stole the piece.

secret order of Mexicans is said to have been in preparation of intervention by the United States. The leaders received a severe rebuke from Governor Maytorena, who was broached with a request to furnish 500 rifles. Three Mexican men of Nogales, Sonora, signed the request. They also approached Colonel Emiliano Zetserlsky, commander of the State rural police. He likewise spurned the offer.

A plan to dynamite public buildings on the American side as retaliation for intervention is said to have been on foot. Mexican authorities declare they will take immediate steps to crush the efforts of the agitators.

Rebels Take Big Sum From Banker

LAREDO, Texas, Feb. 18.—Luis Hahoe, representative of the National Bank of Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, was held in prison yesterday until he turned over to the rebel treasurer 30,000,000 pesos deposited by the customs department. Hahoe's release Hahoe joined the refugees on the American side of the border.

Two hundred thousand pesos was saved from the government, however, by the quick wit of the collector of customs, Alonso Aspa. The collector was waited upon by a delegation of rebels, who demanded that he turn over all the funds in his possession. Aspa replied that he had deposited the funds with the bank.

The delegation left, apparently satisfied. Aspa made a hurried trip to Laredo and gave the money over to the keeping of the United States bank.

Wilson Takes Keen Interest in Mexico

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 18.—President-elect Wilson displayed yesterday a very keen interest in the developments in Mexico. Wilson feels that he ought to refrain from injecting any more elements into the dilemma that it already contains.

Three Battleships Now at Vera Cruz

VERA CRUZ, Feb. 18.—Three American battleships, the Georgia, Vermont and Nebraska, now here, were visited yesterday by the civic authorities.

Great alarm was occasioned last night when the military and police officials mistook 30 laborers from an electric plant for marauders in disguise.

Two hundred American refugees have reached here, and many others are on their way here. The American consul, W. W. Canaday, has organized a committee and collected funds and supplies for their maintenance. The federal garrison has been increased to 1600.

U. S. Ambassador to Issue Paper

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—United States Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson is to add editorial work to the manifold duties which he has been obliged to assume in connection with the care of the American legation in Mexico City, since the civil war began in the streets of the capital ten days ago. Advice here says that all of the newspapers in the capital have been seized by the government, or have suspended publication, because of the peril from spies and snipers who were decided among the refugees at the American Embassy that the gap should be filled with a small daily paper, published at the Embassy, for the benefit of Americans and others who have been unable to get papers for a week.

DEPARTMENT SAVINGS BUY FIREHOUSE SITE

Savings in the fiscal appropriations for the fire department have made possible the setting aside of a sufficient fund for the purchase of a site for a new fire house, to be used as firehouse and police substation in the road avenue district. The site is to be on a ridge and will command a large area on opposite sides of the heights to which the apparatus can be driven with speed.

Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner announced this morning that orders will be obtained immediately on a site for the new fire house and police substation, but that the erection of the building will have to be deferred until funds are set aside in the budget for the next fiscal year.

BOY, ON HONOR, MAKES TRIP TO REFORM SCHOOL

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 18.—The honor trip was administered to Samuel Klagerman, a San Francisco boy committed to the Whittier reform school, and the youth was not found wanting. Incidentally, the state was saved about $55 because the boy prepared a large letter to his mother, to Whittier Sheriff Eggers of San Francisco in the custody of his honor, and arrived in due time and presented himself to Superintendent Mellon of the school. The boy had every chance to escape.

to proceed to Guantanamo, she was loaded, provisioned and manned with eight hours and she moved out of Wallabout bay at the navy yard punctually at 6 30 o'clock, the hour set in the orders, under command of Rear Admiral Winslow.

At the barracks 300 marines were ready to embark for Philadelphia to ship on the transport Meade for Guantanamo.

TRANSPORTS SAIL.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Feb. 18.—The United States army transports Meade and McClellan sailed early today, the Meade for Philadelphia and the McClellan for Galveston. He Kilpatrick and Sumner are still here. They have sailing orders for Southern ports and probably will get away today.

READY FOR SERVICE.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 18.—Orders to hold the Seventh Infantry and the first battalion of the Nineteenth Infantry in readiness for active service were received at Fort Leavenworth today from the war department. The post quartermaster immediately arranged with a railroad company to supply four train cars on an instant's notice and began supplying the troops with field and camp equipment.

Today's orders affected 1088 men and 51 officers. A dispatch to Company E, Corps of Engineers, Company D, Signal Corps, and Field Ambulance Company No. 2, ordered held in readiness last night.

No announcement as to the probable destination of the troops should they move was made by officers, but it was believed Galveston would be the objective point.

PURSUING MEXICANS.

ALPINE, Tex., Feb. 18.—Sheriff J. A. Walton of Brewster county, with a posse, is pursuing a small band of Mexicans who crossed the border last night and raided ranches in Texas, stealing horses, saddles and arms. They are said to be rebels.

Madero Is Favored by Dr. Barrows

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 18.—Fraise for President Madero and censure for General Felix Diaz, his opponent in the Mexican revolution, were contained in an interview given out this morning by Professor David P. Barrows of the university department of political science.

"What surprises me," declared Dr. Barrows, "is that the newspapers throughout this country for the most part are united in the opposition to the Madero administration. Dr. Barrows has been on three trips of investigation to Mexico since the Madero revolution broke out and is a generally recognized authority on Mexican and Central American problems. Dr. Barrows says:

"Francisco Madero has consistently endeavored to give Mexico a constitutional government. That was his promise, and that is now his effort. The independence of Congress has been proclaimed in parts of the country, was an act approved by Congress. The federal principle and the autonomy of state have been respected.

"Madero's administration is for social reform, while the only form of government which Diaz has to offer is that of military dictatorship. Both Diaz and General Reyes believe in establishing peace and order by absolute military rule.

RIGHTS PROTECTED.

"For the reason that property rights are best protected under an executive of President Madero's principles it is best for American interests in the republic that the present form of government should stand. If Madero falls in the present struggle there will continue to be anarchy, while if Madero succeeds, as I believe he will, peace will be brought about by a sure process of social reform.

The main trouble in Mexico is the result of social problems. Millions of people who feel oppressed are struggling to gain possession of lands held in great estates. It is a peasants' war, and Francisco Madero is the only man in the republic who is with enough power and executive ability to throw a fair and humane government. I do not believe that a dictatorship can continue to exist in Mexico, on account of the growing strength of American influence."

WESTENBERG MUST ANSWER FOR LIBEL

Oakland Police Holds It Has Jurisdiction and Sets Trial for March 4.

J. C. Westenberg, missionary, and head of the California Federation for the Suppression of Vice, who was found guilty by a jury on a charge of violating the city ordinances of Oakland, pleaded not guilty to the charge of criminal libel preferred by Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen and asked for a trial on March 4. The court did not have jurisdiction and that a person complained had not been filed and that there was not sufficient grounds for the issuance of an information. The motion was denied, as the jurisdiction of the court has been passed upon by the California Court of Appeals.

LABOR LEADER IS CALLED BY DEATH

Oldest Member of the Central Council Dies After Short Illness.

Fred C. Joslyn, oldest member of the Central Labor council of Alameda county and a member of Appomattox post, G. A. R. died yesterday in Providence hospital, after an illness of three days. Up to a few months ago, he was active in labor and fraternal circles, where he played an important part.

Sixty-nine years ago he was born in Michigan, where he enlisted in the army. Forty-five years ago he settled in this city, where he affiliated with the Union Labor council, in which he held office for many years. He was secretary and treasurer of the Central Labor council and it has been stated that he devoted the greater part of his life to the cause. He lived a bachelor. He fought for union labor and always believed in the "square deal" for the working people.

Several weeks ago the members of the Barbers' union of this city, planned to give a banquet hall for the pioneer worker and they were selling tickets for the affair which was scheduled for March 15 in Germania hall, Seventh and Webster streets. It has not been definitely decided whether they will enjoy the dance on that date or not.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the undertaking parlors of Freeman & Cox, 728 Eighth street, where two representatives of the local Bartender's union No. 525, Eagles lodge and Appomattox post will act as pallbearers.

POINCARÉ NOW RESIDES IN PALACE

Kiss Signal to French People
That Office Hands Has Changed

Simple Inaugural Marks the Change in Administration of European Republic.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—The inauguration of Raymond Poincaré as president of the French republic for a term of seven years took place today with simple ceremonies. There was a great display of popular enthusiasm as the new chief executive proceeded to the Palace of the Elysee.

Premier Briand early in the afternoon called at the private residence of the President-elect. The two then proceeded in a four-horse open carriage escorted by cuirassiers through the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne, the Avenue des Champs Elysees and the Avenue de Marigny to the palace.

In spite of zero weather the streets were lined with people. A school holiday had been proclaimed and most of the children were on hand to cheer and wave handkerchiefs and flags.

SALUTE FIRED.

As the President-elect's carriage entered the courtyard of the palace a battalion of infantry came to salute while the trumpeters played a fanfare.

M. Fallières the retiring president, with Emile Loubet, the only other living ex-president of the French republic, received M. Poincaré on the steps of the palace and walked with him to the reception hall, where M. Fallières delivered a brief address, at the end of which he transferred the seals of office to M. Poincaré. The latter in a few remarks accepted the responsibilities of his new post.

President Poincaré and ex-President Fallières kissed each other on both cheeks and at the same moment the guns on the Palace des Invalides began to thunder a salute announcing that the presidency had changed hands.

RECEIVES INSIGNIA.

General Georges A. Florentin, grand chancellor of the Legion of Honor, then invested President Poincaré with the insignia of grand master of the order. Oddly enough, President Poincaré, although he had recommended many hundreds of people for the decoration of the Legion of Honor had never until today himself received the ribbon even of the lowest grade.

After luncheon President Poincaré escorted ex-President Fallières to the flat that he had engaged for his future residence, which is in the Rue Francois Premier, near that of United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick.

President Poincaré then returned to the Elysee, where he for the first time as President of the republic presided over a meeting of the cabinet.

The principal streets of Paris were decorated all day with bunting. Crowds promenaded the city singing the "Marseillaise."

SAYS TWO CHINESE HELD HIM UP

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—George Iyeki, a cook of 2238 Pacific avenue, was beaten by two Chinese robbers, who held him up on Portola alley at a late hour last night. Iyeki was seized from behind by the thugs, knocked to the sidewalk and his pockets rifled of $22.70 and a diamond locket valued at $20. He notified the Central station, giving a description of the highwaymen, who were dressed in American clothes, he said.

INDIANA FINANCIER PASSES AWAY AT 83

TERRA HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 18.—W. R. McKeen, 83 years old, former president of the Vandalia Railroad Company and one of the best known financiers of the State, died at his home here early today, following four years of illness. He was a prominent Republican and was a candidate for United States Senator in 1897 against Charles W. Fairbanks. He was the only civilian in the State to be made a member of the Legion of Honor.

Bids $7,235,000 for New Dreadnought

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The Newport News Shipbuilding company's bid of $7,235,000 for construction of the new dreadnaught Pennsylvania, with Curtiss turbine engines, was the lowest of all proposals opened at the Navy Department today.

The Pennsylvania, officially known as No. 38, will not only be the biggest ship in the American Navy, but so far as is known will exceed in size any warship so far laid down by a foreign power. Her tonnage will be 31,000, almost three times that of the famous old Oregon, already dwarfed into insignificance by the great American superdreadnaughts.

This latest addition to the navy will cost when complete with guns, armor and equipment, $14,173,000.

While only 600 feet long, the Pennsylvania will have a beam of 97 feet, almost as much as it is safe to negotiate in the Panama canal locks. Her draught will be 24 feet 6 inches, which will leave open a "bar" most of the great oceanic ports of the world. A battery of 14 inch guns, the most powerful naval weapons afloat, supplemented by four torpedo tubes, and 22 five-inch secondary guns, will constitute the ship's armament.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves. And thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the best. WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash. A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive guarantee.

'LIFE AFTER LIFE---BE NOT AFRAID,' LAST WORDS OF JOAQUIN MILLER, FAMED POET OF SIERRA

MEETS DEATH WITH HAPPY SMILE ON

Wrote Poem Friday Chiding the World for Its Lack of Faith.

were Colonel John P. Irish, the Rev. William Day Simonds, Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Dunham, Rupert Schmid, the sculptor, Captain Darling and Alma Steinhilber, who nursed the poet's mother when she died years ago on the "Hights."

Takeshi Kanno, the Japanese poet, and his wife, Gertrude Boyle, who sculptor, who have made their home for eight years on The Hights, are offering their consolation to the little family. Gertrude Boyle has been working for seven years on a bust of Joaquin Miller, which is said to be a marvelous representation of the poet's vigorous personality. Mrs. Kanno intends to present a copy of her work to the Miller family that it may be mounted on a granite shaft somewhere within the woods where Joaquin loved to walk.

TAKES DEATH MASK.
Rupert Schmid, the distinguished sculptor, who has been in Munich for the past eight years and who is well known in San Francisco and California art circles, visited Juanita cottage this morning and took a death mask of the poet's countenance.

Sam C. Dunham, another visitor, was in the Klondike as a representative of the United States department of agriculture at the time Joaquin Miller was there as a newspaper correspondent. The Dunham home is scarcely a mile from that of the poet.

It is expected that letters and telegrams from all parts of the world will soon begin to pour in upon Mrs. Miller and the poet's daughter. The widow will not remain at the "Hights," the high altitude having already commenced to show its effects upon her health. She will probably return to Washington, the former home of Joaquin.

WILL REMAIN ON "HIGHTS."
Juanita Miller said this morning that she would always make her home on the "Hights" unless it becomes the property of the city for the purpose of a public park. Otherwise she will construct a stone bungalow some little distance from the cottage where her father died and will there remain.

Prior to her father's recent illness Mrs. Juanita Miller had received many flattering theatrical offers to go upon the stage and sing some of her father's poems to which she has set original music. She steadfastly refused on the plea that her father's condition was so precarious that he needed her constantly.

One of the most grief-stricken of Joaquin Miller's associates was the Japanese poet, Takeshi Kanno, who for eight years has worshiped Miller with the devotion of a faithful servant. When Kanno saw that the end was inevitable he penned an allegorical poem full of Oriental imagery and abounding in beautiful lines.

END COMES PEACEFULLY.

At his home on "The Hights," in the sunniest spot among the Fruitvale hills, in a room fragrant with violets and acacia bloom from his own garden, the poet died late yesterday afternoon. His wife and daughter, Juanita, were his bed-side and death came peacefully and without a struggle.

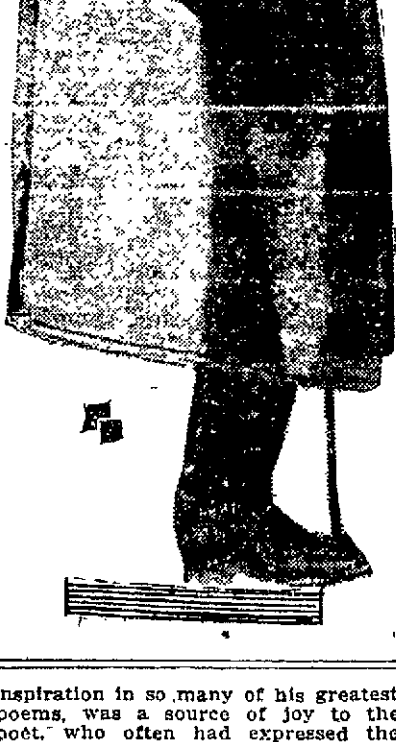

"Take me away, take me away," he called feebly just before he died, and, taking his wife's hand, he closed his eyes as his soul took its flight.

That death had come in the home

the loved, among acres of giant trees and beautiful blossoms, had been his desire to spend his last days on "The Hights."

ADMIRER BY WORLD.
So ends the career of a man for whom the entire nation is mourning, a man whose storminess and yet gentleness of nature, whose versatility of mind and originality of character and effort have won him the never-ending admiration and respect of that nation. When the news of the poet's passing was flashed out over the world many a head was bowed.

Miller had known for days that the end was near and Friday morning he composed his last poem. "This is my last message to the world," he said to his wife, and though his brain worked with its usual rapidity and keenness, it was with difficulty he scrawled the lines.

ASHES TO REST ON PYRE.

The poet, also planned his own funeral and requested that his body be burned on the rock funeral pyre he had built with his own hands some time ago and that his ashes be preserved there. As far as possible his wishes will be carried out, and though the body will be cremated at the Oakland crematorium at Mountain View cemetery tomorrow morning, the ashes will rest in state on the pyre. The funeral ceremony will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the home on "The Hights."

Whittier's poem, "The Poet and the Children," written on the death of Longfellow, was one of Miller's favorites and appropriately applies to the passing of the Poet of the Sierra.

For six weeks it has been known that Miller must soon give up the struggle. Diabetes and arterial sclerosis had left their mark upon him and it was only his remarkable tenacity in clinging to life that kept him alive. His physician, Dr. J. H. Stout, informed the wife and daughter some weeks ago that the poet could last but a short time.

END COMES QUICKLY.

Early yesterday afternoon, when it was found that Miller was sinking, his daughter came to Oakland for Dr. Stout and Colonel John P. Irish, a friend of many years, but the end came about 3 o'clock, before they arrived.

"The end came peacefully," said Mrs. Miller. "He simply went to sleep."

Sunday afternoon I read to him from Tennyson and from the Bible, then I sang him to sleep with "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

"During the night he spoke in his sleep, calling for his brother John and his pappy," as he called his father. He also called for Colonel Irish.

"In the morning he knew his end was near. When I gave him his medicine he said, 'Able, these are my last hours.'"

"Just before he died he called to the angels: 'Take me away! Take me away!' and took my hand and closed his eyes forever."

CONQUERS ILLNESS.

Two years ago Joaquin Miller was not expected to live. He was taken to Fania hospital, but owing to his indomitable will he rallied and went to "The Hights" in October.

Though he never fully regained his former ruggedness, he again mingled among men and has since written several poems.

In May last he read his poem, "Columbus," said by Elbert Hubbard to be the greatest poem by an American, as part of a moving picture van derbilt in Berkeley.

In June he sent on a poem to Washington when the log cabin in which he had lived and written at the capital was publicly dedicated in Rock Creek park.

In August he announced his intention to vote for Woodrow Wilson, and on election day carried out his promise.

In December last he was able to receive Dr. Frederick Cook, and about that time announced that a diet of honey and hominy was prolonging his life.

MILLER'S LIFE ONE OF ACHIEVEMENT

Cincinnati's Heine Miller, the baptismal name of the poet, was born in Indiana, either in 1849 or 1851. The records of his birth were burned. His mother is authority for the statement that 1841 was the date of his birth. The mother was of a family named De Witt, famous in Indiana. His father was a teacher and preacher, but the poet's early education seems to have been sadly neglected, for he claimed that all the schooling he got from his father covered no longer a period than six months.

In 1850 he moved to Oregon with his parents. At the age of fourteen, however, in company with some adventurous companions of his own age, he ran away from home and went to one of the placer mining camps in the northern part of this State, where for a time he passed through a miserable experience owing to his inability to cook or do any kind of manual labor. However, his poetic genius began developing at that early period of life and while the poems he then wrote did not appeal specially to the miners, who treated them as evidences of insanity, they have been pronounced since as meritorious by competent critics. The treatment he received at the hands of the miners, alienated young Miller from his own race and he sought refuge with the Modocs who treated him with such marked kindness and sympathy it largely shaped his subsequent career and awakened within a strong affection for the Indians with whom he lived for several years while following the occupation of a miner.

TAKES UP ARMS.

When the Pitt river broke out, Miller took up arms against the whites out of revenge for his early treatment by the miners, and participated in several skirmishes and engagements. It was during this Indian uprising that Miller adopted the cognomen Joaquin in place of his baptismal name, as the result of the circulation of a report that the white man fighting with the hostile Indians was Joaquin Murietta, the famous Mexican bandit.

Subsequently, Miller joined the ill-fated Walker filibustering expedition to Nicaragua, where he was taken prisoner and would have met the fate of his leader had it not been for the intervention of the native women in his behalf.

In 1860 Miller returned to Oregon and studied law at Eugene with George H. Williams, who served as Attorney-General during Grant's occupation of the presidential chair. A year later Miller was engaged as an express messenger in Idaho.

STARTS NEWSPAPER.

In 1863 he entered on a journalistic career by starting the Eugene Democrat Register. But the paper was short-lived, the authorities promptly suppressing on the ground of its disloyal utterances. Miller then took up the practice of law at Canyon City, a mining camp in Southern Oregon, located on one of the forks of the Umpqua river, and stuck to the profession for three years, when he was elected county judge for Grant county. As such he served for a period of four years, during which time, it was while occupying the bench that Miller wrote "The Songs of the Sierra," the most ambitious and successful of all his literary works, whose publication in London soon after his retirement from the bench made him world-famous. His brilliant imagination and originality of style and form of expression attracted the attention and commanded the admiration of the literary critics in the United States and Great Britain, and he was, at once, given a place in the niche of literary fame as "The Poet of the Sierras." Nothing that Joaquin Miller subsequently wrote, however, equaled in merit and brilliancy "The Songs of the Sierra," whose appearance induced British critics to hail him as the rising greatest of American poets, a prediction, however, which was never fulfilled, for, although he was a voluminous writer, nothing came from his pen afterward which was equal in merit or which commanded such popular attention and critical commendation. Joaquin Miller lived long enough, also, after the publication of "The Songs of the Sierra," to find even that work to be neglected by the generation which followed.

IS SPECIAL WRITER.

For some years after his return to the United States from London, after the publication of "The Songs of the Sierras," Joaquin Miller was employed as a newspaper correspondent and special writer at the national capital, Washington, D. C. From there he moved to this State in 1887, and made his home on a tract of wild mountain land on the flank of the Contra Costa range overlooking Oakland, to which he gave the name of "The Hights." There he gave expression to some of the eccentricities of his character by building a group of log cabins, in one of which he quartered his aged mother, and in another of which he lived largely the life of a recluse surrounded by the evidences of the wild aboriginal and backwoods period of his young manhood. There he wrote most of his later works and his fugitive newspaper contributions and there was his home up to the time of his death.

During the rush to the Klondike gold-fields he was dispatched to the upper Yukon as a special correspondent for a New York and a San Francisco newspaper; but the experience added no new luster to his fame. In addition to "The Songs of the Sierra," the following are the more notable of Miller's later works: "Pacific Palms," "Songs of the Sunland," "The Ship of the Desert," "Life Among the Modocs," "First Families of the Sierras," "The One Fair Woman," "The Danites in the Sierras," "Shadows of Shasta," "Memories and Rhyme," "Harbors of New York," "Songs of Faraway Lands," "The Destruction of Gotham," "The Building of the City Beautiful," "A Poetic Romance," "49, or The Gold Seekers of the Sierras," "Chants for the Boer, 1900," "True Bear Stories, 1900."

Miller also contributed a number of dramatic compositions portraying western life and characteristics, to the stage, "The Danites," "The Silent Man," "49," "Tally-ho," were among the most successful.

During the twenty years of Miller's residence at "The Hights" he devoted much of his spare moments to the planting of forest trees and the development of orchards and flower gardens, turning the sod and nurturing that which he planted with his own hands, taking special delight in watching their growth to maturity. He delighted, above all things, in living close to nature.

HOW FAMOUS POET SAW LOVED CITY

JOAQUIN MILLER'S own description of Oakland as seen from "The Hights" is given here:

"A VISTA OF OAKLAND FROM THE HIGHTS."

Do you want to see Oakland and San Francisco, and the bay of all the bays on the globe, and the Golden Gate at a glance, and the development of the city and the bay together. Then you must go two miles north-east and one mile perpendicular. In short, where Fremont tented half a century ago, and from which spot he named the now famous Golden Gate years before gold was found.

Here at dawn we are above the clouds! What would the world do without clouds? And at no two hours of the day, no two minutes, faded as the view along here alike. You see the higher streets of San Francisco above the rolling, surging sea mist; the great cross of the Lone Mountain cemetery lifting in grand and solemn loneliness above all things, and looking strangely tall and vast.

MOBILE FLOOR OF SILVER.

The whole bay is a mobile floor of silver. Not a suggestion of the seal Tamapalis, with its winding track and trains above the clouds that conceal San Pablo bay, a white light-house on the headlands below, Black Point, Sutter Heights, Fort Alcatraz, the tips and topmasts of sail—that is all.

"Where phantom ships unchained, longed pass the gloomy guns of Alcatraz."

Twelve o'clock and not a cloud—not a cloud above or about the peaceful fair visage of beautiful Alameda below you.

At morning, noon, or night, again.

POEM TO BERKELEY

IN SONGS OF WEST

FOLLOWING is one of Miller's last poems, dedicated to Berkeley, and read at a business men's banquet in that city:

BERKELEY.

(Westmost City of the Westmost Sea.)

From "Westward the course of Empire takes its way,"

Say, what shall be said of the great bishop's town.

Bishop, and prophet and poet, and seer?

Why, pluck up a cedar, and set her in gold and in flower-fed times here.

City of city in stories to be Classical, scholar-built Berkeley.

Aye, write her fair story, as fair as the star.

As sweet as her sea-winds, as strong as her sea;

City with never a stain nor a scar, City of needs and of destiny;

Sea-bred and sun-bred Mecca to be, Matchless, magnificent Berkeley.

TELLS HOW MILLER GAINED PEN NAME

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—An unpublished chapter added to the life of Joaquin Miller today by Ina Colbrith, the last of the little circle of writers and poets who flourished in San Francisco in the sixties.

"I knew Joaquin Miller better than any one now living, better than his family," she said today, "and I suppose I have a right to call him Joaquin, for I gave him the name."

"When he was leaving for London in 1870, I asked him how he ever expected to succeed with such a name as Cincinnati Heine Miller."

"Why not?" he asked me.

"I told him that Miller was bad enough, and then I asked him why he did not definitely associate himself with California, the scene of his first poem, by taking the name of Joaquin Murietta, its hero. "Joaquin had already published the poem in a little volume, entitled 'Joaquin et al,' and the name appealed to him at once. The first letter I had from him in London was signed 'Joaquin,' and that was what he called himself himself ever after."

EDUCATORS PLAN TO HONOR MEMORY

Resolutions on the death of the poet were ordered drawn up by the Board of Education last night and will be passed at the next meeting. This was done on motion of Director Forrest.

"The loss of this poet means much to the educational world," declared Forrest. "Our children, in the schools we preside over, are studying his works. It is fit that at this time a fitting resolution be ordered."

This was agreed to unanimously.

COUNTY AUDITORS TO GATHER HERE

Three-day Session to Be Held at the Chamber of Commerce.

The Association of County Auditors of California will meet at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow morning. About 58 members, half of whom will be accompanied by their wives, will make up the gathering. A speech of welcome will be made by W. E. Gibson, president of the Chamber of Commerce after the meeting has been called to order by E. F. Garrison, president of the association.

The session will last until Friday evening, with business meetings each day. On Thursday there will be trolley rides for the women of the party, with luncheon served at some point en route. Dinner at the Hotel Oakland will bring the meeting to a close.

The committee assisting County Auditor E. F. Garrison to make the convention a success are from the Merchants' Exchange, Chamber of Commerce and the Progress and Prosperity Committee. It is made up of the following: H. N. Gard, Robert Robertson, F. Willis, George H. Wisking, J. H. Clay, G. W. Hatch, L. C. Howard, J. F. Fugazzi, George H. Mason.

YOUNG SUSPECT IS ARRAIGNED FOR BURGLARY

Thomas Fitzgerald, who was captured in San Francisco Saturday night, was arraigned before Judge Aaron Turner, sitting for Police Judge George Samuel this morning on a charge of burglary.

After having entered the residence of Charles Ingler, an Oakland capitalist, a week ago, Fitzgerald was captured following the arrest of Jesse Harold and Ernest Johnson, who had been his companions in the Preston reform school some months ago.

The two young men were arrested by Inspectors Gallagher, Wood, Hodgkins and Lieutenant Curtis. A watch and revolver taken from the Ingler home were found in possession of Harold and Johnson. Questioned they implicated Fitzgerald. Inspectors Green, Quigley and Drew worked on the case.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

G. F. Arthur and William Kuhnle, arrested on three charges each of selling lottery tickets, pleaded not guilty this morning and asked for jury trial. The cases were set for trial March 11. The defendants are out on $500 bond each.

No Need to Stop Work.

When the doctor orders you to stop work it staggers you. I can't, you say. You know you are weak, run down and failing in health day by day, but you must work as long as you can stand. What you need is Electric Bitters in your blood, strength and vigor to your system, to prevent breakdown and build you up.

Electric Bitters will benefit you from the first dose. Thousands bless them for their glorious health and strength. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at Ogden's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is effective in removing that tired feeling, because this great medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. Take it this spring.

Get it today in the usual liquid form or in the tablets called Sarsatabs.

'Fifty Years Ago, When Golden Wedding Rye Was Young'

Used moderately to stimulate failing appetite, Golden Wedding is remarkably successful. It has all the natural tonic quality, untainted. It is mild, mellow and most agreeable to the taste. There is a special reason for this—

Finch's Golden Wedding Bottled in Bond

Is distilled by its own exclusive formula and process. These are worked out to maintain the original quality and flavor in its absolute purity. No trace of adulterant is permitted to enter. No foreign element remains. That is why it is different from ordinary whiskeys. It is pure, straight whiskey, aged and matured in wood, under government supervision. Always have Golden Wedding in your home. See that it has the government stamp over the cork.

"Made Differently"

Joaquin Miller.

Joaquin Miller was unquestionably a lyric genius, though not of the first-class, and he has written verse that will survive longer than the works of some of the English poets now regarded as classics. He wrote much trashy ephemeral stuff, and it is to be regretted that he ever turned his hand to prose, but his "Songs of the Sunland," "Songs of the Sierras" and "Columbus" contains gems of rare brilliancy and beauty. "Kit Carson's Ride" will stir the blood of generations long after the mannerisms and eccentricities of the poet are forgotten. Miller stands at the head of all the poetical geniuses the Pacific Coast has up to this time produced. Bret Harte's verse is weak, tame and spiritless compared to Miller at his best, nor have any of his American contemporaries exhibited the fire, the warm imagination and the rich coloring of fancy which distinguished Joaquin Miller in his loftiest flights.

His exuberance often displayed a lack of scholarship, but the true genius of poetry does not glow by rule and is not restrained within the narrow bounds which confine prose diction. Miller drew pictures which fastened themselves on the brain with pictorial opulence. He was a painter who used words for his pigments. It is easy for the critic to find blemishes in his work, but it is difficult to find work that so strongly appeals to sentiment and imagination.

No poet can be judged by his poorest work. It is the best that survives and shows what a man is capable of. Thomas Gray is remembered for his "Elegy in a Country Churchyard." Miller's "Columbus" is as worthy of remembrance. "Kit Carson's Ride" is a vivid picture of the romance and heroism of the prairies, and "The Final Parting"—Miller's swan song—expresses a longing for immortality that touches the heart with a tender cadence.

Joaquin Miller's place in literature will be fixed after his contemporaries have passed away, but this much is sure, he will have a niche in the pantheon of true poets. All true poets sing, and Joaquin Miller sang—a wild, untrained note, to be sure, but his strain is wonderfully melodious and rarely appealing to the emotions.

It would be a commentary on the referendum if the calling of a special election in San Francisco should depend upon the signatures of inmates of the Relief Home. The issue to be decided is an agreement between the city and the United Railroads for the joint use of the railroad tracks on Market street, between Geary street and the ferry. The absurdity of the wards of the city, who pay no taxes and live at the public charge, calling for a special election to decide the matter is so manifestly absurd that it requires no comment. The Chronicle says nearly all the qualified voters, as well as some who are not qualified, in the Relief Home signed the referendum petition. The Socialists are opposed to the agreement, for some reason not clearly explained, and have circulated the petition for a referendum. It is likely that the signatures of the Relief Home inmates will make up the quota of signatures required by law. The election will cost the taxpayers about $15,000.

Battleships for the Pacific Coast.

The excuse for keeping the battleship fleet massed on the North Atlantic Coast is that it is unsafe to divide it. The present scattered condition of the fleet shows the emptiness of this contention. Four battleships are on the Gulf Coast of Mexico and two others are in Cuban waters. The cruiser squadron on the Pacific Coast is distributed at various points between Puget Sound and Acapulco and Honolulu. In theory the battleship fleet is kept together; as a matter of fact, it is broken into detachments as exigency arises.

Our country faces the Pacific as well as the Atlantic, and the Pacific Coast is as much entitled to protection as the Atlantic Coast. There is as much danger of attack from the westward side as from the eastward side; and, moreover, we have Hawaii and the Philippines to protect in the Pacific. Battleships cruising off New England afford no protection to the Pacific Coast, and precious little to the Panama canal. The convenience of naval officers and the financial interests of the cities on the North Atlantic Coast deprive the Pacific Coast of a battleship squadron.

We do not believe there is any danger of an armed collision between the United States and any first-class power—certainly not with either Great Britain or Germany. With the latter we have not even the shadow of a dispute, and our difference with England over canal tolls is entirely friendly, and can never become a casus belli. It is inconceivable that the two great branches of the English-speaking race should ever again become involved in war with each other.

Aside from England and Germany, who is there for the United States to fear? What nation has a navy strong enough to venture a sea attack on this country? Only Japan, and Japan faces our western coast. There is only a remote possibility of a conflict with Japan, but it is not more remote than the likelihood of war with some European power.

Our international troubles are confined to this continent, and they are of a character that will hardly require the massing of a large naval force. We are building a big navy on a false assumption, and keeping it mobilized on an assumption equally false. The causes of friction which keep Europe armed, jealous and on the alert do not exist on this hemisphere. We do not covet the territory of any neighbor, and our borders do not touch any powerful nation cherishing the spirit of hereditary animosity which keep the relations of France and Germany at a tension. Furthermore, the jealousy between the European powers is a bond of security to the United States. We do not believe any one of them has the slightest desire to molest us, but if any one had, the hostility of near neighbors would deter any European power from attacking us. Nor is this country likely to give any of the great powers a pretext for going to war with us.

Hence keeping the battleship fleet mobilized on the North Atlantic Coast is a vain precaution. A shadow has been conjured up as an excuse for responding to the dictation of the moneyed section of the eastern sea coast. We build ships to fight imaginary foes, and then keep them cruising in a great fleet between Hampton Roads and Newport, where officers have no more dangerous service to perform than splicing the main brace, drinking tea and dancing the cotillion. We can give them plenty of that kind of service on the Pacific Coast.

ENDURANCE TEST

—CHICAGO DAILY NEWS

A Firm Note From Taft.

While couched in the courteous terms of diplomacy, President Taft's reply to Madero's impudent telegram has the ring of iron in it. The Mexican president is warned that the patience of the American people is exhausted, and that they insist upon the promises that our citizens would be protected being fulfilled. President Taft reminds Madero that he is "inaccurate" in stating the intentions of the United States, and gives him the lie circumpect by calling his attention to the fact that Ambassador Wilson had informed him of the purpose of ordering American warships into the Mexican waters and the orders their commanders were under.

Madero knew there was no intention of landing American soldiers and sailors in Mexico, and hence sent his telegram of protest under a false assumption which he had deliberately made to give himself a pretext for a gallery play, and for covertly threatening the lives of defenseless Americans now in Mexico. There is a militant note in the closing paragraph of the President's letter:

"In reciprocating the anxiety shown by your excellency's message, I feel it my duty to add sincerely and without reserve that the course of events during the past two years culminating in the present most dangerous situation creates in this country extreme pessimism and the conviction that the present paramount duty is the prompt relief of the situation."

President Taft is right, "the paramount duty is the prompt relief of the situation." Madero ought to understand that. He has shuffled and evaded till the limit has been reached. At last, President Taft has realized that an ultimatum must be issued. Now that it has been issued, it is to be hoped that it will be adhered to firmly. Further temporizing will be useless, and will only make the United States ridiculous in the eyes of the world.

It is estimated that the street car line the State Board of Harbor Commissioners propose to build on the San Francisco waterfront will cost in the neighborhood of $3,000,000. Is the money to be taken from the fund provided by bond issue for the construction of docks and wharves and an extension of the seawall? The proposed diversion, if entirely legal, does not square with the chronic complaint that San Francisco is inadequately provided with port facilities.

Mayor Rolph and Rudolph Spreckels.

The dear Alphonse correspondence between Rudolph Spreckels and Mayor Rolph is highly diverting; it is also illuminating and instructive. The efforts of Spreckels to play the part of guardian of San Francisco and the director of all its political activities would be highly amusing if they were not so exasperating. The immensity of his egotism and the hectoring impudence of his commands are good-naturedly, but caustically satirized by the Mayor. Spreckels is censorious, self-righteous, selfish and inordinately fond of himself. He assumes that all persons who do business with any bank but his own are necessarily evil-minded and untrustworthy, and that any official who disagrees with him is derelict and influenced by improper motives. Mayor Rolph has given his mountainous conceit a severe jolt. Doubtless he will construe this as a confession of complete abandonment, but the average citizen will rejoice that the Mayor has spunkily given him a piece of his mind. Mr. Spreckels is a petty, narrow-minded man, who thinks his wealth gives him the right to give orders to the officials the people have elected to manage their business, and his arrogant self-love is combined with a jealous envy of everybody else who gains distinction. But the Mayor has effectively punctured the bladder of his swollen conceit.

The rebuke the state department administered to that pragmatic egotist, John Barrett, was deserved and timely. Barrett has an insatiable itch for notoriety. His desire to figure in the limelight prompted him to invade the domain of international politics with a letter suggesting that the powers mediate in Mexico. The suggestion was absurd because the United States had never recognized the rebels as belligerents. It was impertinent because it presumed to instruct the diplomatic branch of the government in its duty. Moreover, Barrett was simply advertising himself by his presumptuous attempt to meddle with the affairs of the state department. If the reproach he has received will tend to quell his assurance it will have served a good purpose. His opera bouffe performances as head of the bureau of American republics have become exceedingly tiresome.

TRUCKEE SNOWS GOOD FOR OAKS

Many Organizations Plan Big
Excursions to Winter
Sierra Carnival.

Latest reports from Truckee state that the snow just right for winter sports, so the Oakland Boosters who will visit the northern city Washington's Birthday, are assured of lots of sport. From present indications, at least 200 laval Oaklanders will make the trip. The local bank clearing association, however, there will be delegations from the Elks and Moose and the various civic and commercial organizations will also be represented. The Colorado Club of East Oakland has asked that a car be reserved for its members, and the Architectural Association of the East will be asked for reservations for 25 members of that organization.

The committee of Truckee citizens who will meet the boosters have arranged a great carnival of sport. There will be a snow battle between the Oaklanders and the natives lots of tobogganing, sleighing, skating and sleighing, and a grand ball will be held in the town hall Saturday night. The majority of the city will turn the keys of the burg over to the Oaklanders and they can go as far as they wish.

The gala decorated special train will leave the Sixteenth-street depot on Friday evening at 10 o'clock, and the excursionists will have two full days in the snow country. The return trip will commence late Sunday evening and the train will arrive in Oakland in time to permit the excursionists being at their work at the usual time.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR CALIFORNIA

Congress Liberal in Sundry Civil Bill With Cash for Improvements.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—California appropriations in the sundry civil bill, reported to the House today, include continuation of construction of the San Francisco sub-treasury, $300,000, and improving Humboldt harbor, $457,000.

For continuing construction of post-offices Berkeley, $25,000, Grass Valley, $25,000, Hanford, $12,000, Pasadena, $135,000, Riverside, $25,000, San Diego, $20,000, Santa Barbara, $10,000.

For maintenance of Yosemite National Park, $100,000, and maintenance of Sequoia National Park, $15,550.

The United States fish stations at Beard and Battle Creek get $580 each.

The usual appropriation of $15,000 for the California Debris Commission is made and $28,000 is appropriated for examination of beet lands.

SARAH BERNHARDT WILL PLAY BEFORE CONVICTS

SAN QUENTIN, Feb. 18.—Prison discipline relaxed for 10 minutes yesterday at the dinner table, and 1980 men in stripes cheered wildly the announcement of Warden John E. Hoyle.

"Sarah Bernhardt will play in the open air in the lower yard of this prison reservation at 12 o'clock on the morning of Washington's Birthday, and you are all invited to be present."

The vehicle chosen by Bernhardt for the portrayal of her resplendent aristocracy is "One Christmas Night." She will bring her full company with her.

Mme Bernhardt is sponsor of the idea. She read of the production of "Ailsa Jimmy Valentine" in the open air at this prison two years ago, and became intensely interested when she was told that it might be possible to arrange for a performance with herself in the leading role. She chose Washington's Birthday, declaring it was one in which the French people took pride, because of the intimate relations of Lafayette and Rochambeau with the first President of the nation.

Saws and hammers are ringing in the air as the workmen, nearly 100 of them, hurry to complete the temporary structure of the lower yard.

No prisoner will be prohibited from attending the performance.

"Human lives are nothing," he said, "if my going forth we can add one lot to the sum of human knowledge."

He paid a tribute to Scott and to Commander Charles Wake of the United States navy, whose discovery of the Antarctic continent in 1840 has recently been confirmed by the Mawson expedition.

MISS WURTZ PLANS FOR HER WEDDING IN NEAR FUTURE

MISS REBA WURTZ, WHO WILL BECOME THE BRIDE OF ALBERT SILVERNAIL.—Bushnell Photo.

Plans for her wedding have been practically completed by Miss Reba Wurtz, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wurtz, whose engagement to Albert Silvernail was announced some time ago. The attendants have been chosen but the date has not definitely been decided upon, though it will probably be an event of the early spring. Miss Irene O'Rourke will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Gladys Shaw, Miss Dorothy Wishart, Miss Sara Yeatman and Miss Elizabeth Cook.

A number of delightful affairs have been given for the pretty bride elect and a number are in prospect. Miss Sara and Miss Irene Yeatman invited about thirty guests to a card party and kitchen shower Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Wurtz. Other affairs will take place this week.

FRENCH ARMY TO BE STRENGTHENED

German War Measures Cause
Extensive Preparations to Cost $16,000,000.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—The French government has in preparation extensive plans for increasing the strength of the army to counterbalance the new military measures now pending before the German imperial parliament.

The scheme will be submitted to the chamber of deputies next week. The government intends to ask for a first credit of about $16,000,000 for an immediate supply of munitions (food, ammunition, wagons). This will be followed by a second request for $100,000,000 to rearm all branches of the service, including the heavy artillery.

The effective strength of the army is to be increased by extending the term of the enlistment of the soldiers. The project has been thoroughly discussed and the government has called into consultation a number of experts.

The public is greatly impressed by the German project for increasing the peace footing of the German army to $50,000 men.

LIBEL CASE SETTLED

WOODLAND, Cal. Feb. 18.—Perhaps the speediest settlement of a criminal libel case in the history of California was made yesterday, when P. A. Fitzgerald, editor of the Woodland Independent, made a public retraction of an article accusing local merchants of running "blind pigs."

pleaded guilty to an indictment returned last Thursday, and paid a fine of $100.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Receipt

No Better Remedy at Any Price.
Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and 1/2 pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of pure Pinex (40c) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three times a day.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequalled remedy for whooping cough and croup.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Pinex with other extracts, and is rich in quinine and all the natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this recipe.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS MEASURE PASSED

Construction of $25,000,000
Worth of Buildings Authorized.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—After a momentous debate the house yesterday passed the public buildings bill authorizing the construction of $25,000,000 worth of public buildings throughout the country. The vote on the bill was 184 to 42 and the opponents of the measure were unable to muster enough votes to secure a roll call to insure a record vote.

Representative Fitzgerald of New York chairman of the house appropriations committee, and Representative Harwick of Georgia, vigorously attacking the Democratic side for their support of the bill.

"The sham economists who have been talking economy and advocating public building bills which fasten obligations upon the treasury," declared Fitzgerald, "either should cease talking economy or should attempt to stop the authorization which makes inevitable the expenditure of large sums of public money."

Representative Fitzgerald declared that the bill was a scientific method of passing a public building bill.

It ties together everybody with an item in it and makes impossible to give close scrutiny and attention to the bill. I understand this bill has been so scientifically prepared that it cannot be defeated.

Representative Harwick was bitter in his denunciation of the bill. "I believe," he declared, "honesty and candor that this is the worst bill of its kind ever reported to an American House of Representatives. I do not think that in the palmy days of Canineum, as I often a proposition ever came to this house."

Representative Burnett, Representative Clark of Florida, and Representative Austin of Tennessee defended the bill, declaring it was framed on an economical basis, following two years when no public buildings bills were passed.

Blue Appoints Inspectors to Prevent Introduction of Yellow Fever Here.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—To guard against the introduction of plague and yellow fever into the United States through tropical fruit importations from April to November, Surgeon General Blue of the public health service, today ordered Surgeon John H. White of New Orleans to the following Central American and West Indian ports to inspect health conditions and precautions:

Belle, Puerto Cortez, Tela, and Ceiba, Honduras; Livingston, Zapaca and Puerto Barrios, Guatemala; Bocas del Toro, Panama; Port Limon, Costa Rica, and Kingston and Port Antonio, Jamaica.

Guided by Dr. White's report, the public health service will report such measures as are necessary with the least possible interference with the fruit trade.

ARIZONA SENATE IS AGAINST CHANGES

PHOENIX, Ariz. Feb. 18.—Memorials to Congress advocating independence for the Philippines and the government ownership of railroads, telegraph and telephones, were voted down in the State Senate today 8 to 10.

Christian Scientists from all over the State appeared before the House committee on public health yesterday to protest against the proposed law which would prohibit the practice of healing by Christian Scientists.

The House committee of the whole reported favorably the division of Coconino county with the new county named after Governor Hunt. An effort to change the name to Supai, for an Indian tribe, failed.

Representative Lewis of Globe introduced a bill establishing a minimum wage of $4 a day for miners.

BOMB EXPLODED.
CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—A bomb believed to have contained dynamite was exploded tonight in the front of a saloon owned by Emanuel Abrams. No one was injured. Abrams, who has been active in local politics, told the police he believed a political enemy was responsible for the explosion.

The next installment, which probably will be issued tomorrow, will be a resume of the bills of the session and a digest, covering the appropriation bills introduced in both houses. No grand total was set up for the tabulation, but the proposed appropriations for the construction of new roads total nearly $900,000.

DIGEST ISSUED.
The next installment, which probably will be issued tomorrow, will be a resume of the bills of the session and a digest, covering the appropriation bills introduced in both houses. No grand total was set up for the tabulation, but the proposed appropriations for the construction of new roads total nearly $900,000.

The divided session was adopted, said Secretary Jordan in a statement accompanying the digest, "in order that the people might have time to familiarize themselves with proposed legislation, but no meeting for the purpose of giving the people the full advantage of the process that the digest is being issued."

TEACHER SUSPENDED AS SORORITY MEMBER

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Superintendent of Schools Ella Flegg Young's fight against secret societies in the schools reached a teacher yesterday when Miss Grace Webster, a high school instructor, was suspended for a week without pay. Miss Webster had been grand president of a sorority which exists in defiance of the orders of the board of education. Her connection with the organization was discovered when she signed releases from the sorority for girls who had been summoned before Mrs. Young.

"Miss Webster must resign from the sorority" before she comes back to school," Mrs. Young said last night.

GEORGE J. GOULD HAS RESIGNED PRESIDENCY

GALVESTON, Tex. Feb. 18.—George J. Gould resigned from the directorate of the Galveston, Houston & Henderson railroad at a special meeting of the stockholders of that road here yesterday, and Edward J. Ruffey, president of the Western Pacific and previously connected with the Gould railroad interests, was elected in his place. Robert Campbell of San Antonio also resigned and was succeeded by Charles E. Schaff of Houston, president of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas system.

Fried Potatoes
"Cottolene" style

Did you ever eat French Fried Potatoes made with Cottolene? If not, you've never eaten French Fried Potatoes at their best.

Cottolene makes them rich and crisp and appetizing, but never greasy.

If you have been frying and shortening your food with butter, try Cottolene. It is every bit as good, at less than one-third the price.

If you are using lard for shortening and frying, we would simply suggest that Cottolene is recognized and recommended by leading physicians, domestic science authorities, and culinary experts generally, as being more wholesome, digestible and producing a better food.

Cottolene is a vegetable product—pure in source and making—and is bound to be better and safer than lard.

MINERS TEST LAW
TAXING CORPORATIONS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The intricate question of whether the corporation tax may be collected from mining corporations on the proceeds received from the sale of minerals mined was today laid before the Supreme Court for solution. The Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals, in the suit over the collection of the tax from Stratton Independence, Limited, a gold mine in Colorado, was uncertain as to the law, and certified the case to the Supreme Court.

NORWEGIAN TO LEAD STRANZ RELIEF PARTY

BERLIN, Feb. 18.—The committee which is organizing the relief of the German expedition under Lieutenant Schroeder Stranz, stranded in a vast note part of Spitzbergen, has decided to select a Norwegian as leader the rescue party. A commissioner has been sent to Christiansia to prepare as quickly as possible for a start for the north.

A mean stuffy cold, with sneezing, itching, is just the kind that runs down bronchitis or pneumonia. Don't trifle with such serious conditions. Take Roy's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. Quick and beneficial results are just what you can expect from this great medicine. It soothes and heals the inflamed membrane, racking cough. Wishart's Drug Store.

FRUIT SHIPPERS TO KEEP RECORDS

Growers and Farmers Invited to Hear Discussion on Merits of Measure.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 18.—A meeting of fruit growers and general farmers will be held at the Capitol in the Senate chamber, Thursday, at which time Senator Birdsell of East Auburn will explain his bill relative to the report of commission merchants shipping products through them to market.

The meeting will be called to order at 2 p. m., and Senator Birdsell urged all those who have products to ship to be on hand.

The bill provides that all fruit and produce brokers shall within 10 days of the date of the sale make returns to the commissioner showing the cost and expense charged against the returns, together with the name and address of the purchaser, the conditions in which the shipment was received and the quantity received and delivered.

ENGLISH OF JAPANESE STUDENT WINS PRIZE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 18. The eloquent English of John M. Akahoshi of Kumamoto, Japan, won for him yesterday the Edward Bernwick prize for the best oration in international peace in a contest in which he was pitted against three of Stanford's best debaters. His opponents were F. D. Nowell, Grant Kolcomb and A. F. Coyle, all "cardinal" orators.

The Japanese in his argument for the advancement of world peace, advocated the removal of the American protective tariff and

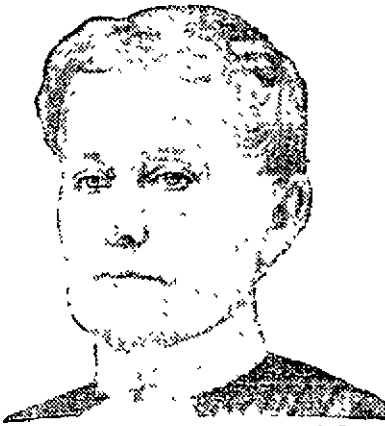

Every Home Needs This Fine Remedy

A Mild, Reliable Laxative- tonic Is Something No Family Should Be Without.

No well-regulated home should be without a laxative for there is scarcely a day in a family of several persons that someone doesn't complain of a headache, of sleeplessness, or show the first signs of a cold.

A laxative then becomes a necessity or what was a trifling congestion at the beginning may run into a serious cold or fever. No harsh remedy is needed, but simply a mild laxative- tonic that will make the liver active and stir up the bowels. People who have tried a great many things, and are themselves heads of families who have seen the little pills run to big ones, will tell you that there is nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size.

Among the great believers in Syrup Pepsin for constipation in old or young, and as a general household emergency remedy, is Mrs. J. W. Anderson, Oswego, Kansas, who writes: "After using one sample bottle and two dollar bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin: 'On the plea of the duty that every one owes to fellow sufferers, I appeal to all such who are afflicted in spirit, broken in health and discouraged with life, not to give up until they have given Dr. Caldwell's Pepsin a fair trial.' Syrup Pepsin is scientifically compounded and its purity is vouched for by Mothers give it to tiny babies, and grown people, taking a little larger amount, find it equally effective. It is mild and gentle, pleasant-tasting and free from griping. It does not hide behind a high sounding name and is absolutely free from any prohibited ingredient. Families who once use Syrup Pepsin forever avoid cathartics, salts, pills and other harsh medicines, for these only do temporary good, nauseous and a shock to any delicate system. Such things should never be given to children.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way, a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

HUGE MOTOR DEAL COMPLETED; LOCAL DEALERS SECURE PLUM

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Fred J. Linz, the man of the hour in the Maxwell car circles in this territory, returned yesterday to San Francisco, after a hurried trip East to confer with Walter Flanders, the head of the huge Maxwell Motor Company, the successor to the United Motor Company.

Linz's trip was a successful one. He returns to the Coast with the contracts for the Maxwell rights in the territory of Northern California, Nevada, Southern Idaho and the Hawaiian Islands. Linz was formerly branch house manager here for the United Motor Company's Maxwell and Columbia car interests. Later he purchased the territorial rights and branch house interests with L. W. Sanborn, who also for years was identified with Linz in the Maxwell car interests here. The past record of Linz as a Maxwell car distributor was a big factor in his securing the present Maxwell line on the coast.

Linz was in conference with A. C. Hull, the head of the Maxwell Sales Company of Oakland and the Alameda county distributor for the new Maxwell line, yesterday upon his return. During the conference Linz said:

"As everybody knows, the Maxwell Motor Company is the reorganized United States Motor Company. The latter was the manufacturer of the Maxwell, Stoddard-Dayton, Columbia and Brush and the Sampson truck, and there are a large number of machines of these different types in California. To take care of these will be established in this city a large parts depot, under the management of the factory. This depot will be stocked with parts for every model of the different lines ever made, and the local distributors will be able to draw upon it immediately, so that all delays in service will be obviated. This depot will be in charge of a regular factory service corps. It will also, of course, carry a full line of parts for the new Maxwell line.

"The Maxwell Motor Company is magnificently equipped. It has half a dozen great factories, with 4,000,000 working capital in the bank, and it does not owe a dollar. The Maxwell 'Six-40' and the 'Four-25' will be manufactured in the factory at Dayton, O. The Maxwell 'Six-50' will be turned out at the old Flanders plant in Detroit, while the Maxwell 'Four-35' will be made at the former Brush plant. The Newcastle, Ind., plant will be devoted entirely to the manufacture of parts for the different cars and for the former lines. The plants at Tarrytown, N. Y., Auburn, R. I., and Pawtucket, R. I., will be sold. The Sampson truck, will continue to be made at the Sampson plant in Detroit.

"If the Chicago show is any criterion of the future of the automobile business, one-half of our prospective purchasers will be without automobiles, as it now seems that the manufacturers are going to be unable to supply the enormous demands. The manufacturers of parts are refusing new orders and say that never before in the history of the automobile industry has the demand for parts been so great, the greatest trouble to contend with being the lack of material. It surely seems that our country is far in advance of our manufacturers. The question is, where is the great industry going to end?"

TAXPAYERS' COLUMN

All Communications to the Editor of THE TRIBUNE must bear the signature and address of the writer.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Those who advocate the establishment of a minimum wage for women, by legislative enactment are doubtless more honest in their intentions than far-sighted in their judgment.

The Minimum Wage bill is unsound in principle and dangerous in its tendency, because it directly conflicts with the long established policy of organized labor. That so many women are members of trade unions is regarded by the American Federation of Labor as a most important advance towards placing them in a position of self-defense. All fair-minded students of economics agree that the trade unions of today are a necessity to the workers and an assistance to the employers. It is an economic fact from which there is no escape, whether or not individually approved of them. Trade unions are no more to be ignored or suppressed than the modern processes of industry. The women wage earners of the United States have learned by experience, long and trying, the many disadvantages they have suffered in the march of modern commercialism. They are also conscious of the pressing need of even a higher maximum wage in many of the industries, but they are very apprehensive, and justly so, that a minimum wage established by statute would prove of any whatever to them. For reasons too numerous to mention, there seems always to be a surplus of the unemployed in the labor market, a majority of whom are unorganized and who would be competitors of those who belong to the trades unions. The employers could easily take advantage of this condition and make the minimum wage the highest wage paid instead of the lowest. This has been demonstrated in New Zealand where the system has been in operation.

wage earners. This tendency would be destructive because the trade unions are the medium through which women gain increase in wages and receive protection against being intimidated by employers and superintendents; they also receive many other protections which could not possibly be provided by statutory enactment.

In consideration of the facts herein named and there is but one conclusion in this case and that is, a law dependent upon the reports of commissions and conferences would inevitably lack stability and equity, therefore would be detrimental to the best interests of women wage earners. Those who do the world's work certainly are capable, in some degree at least, of doing their own thinking in regard to the wages they should receive for their labor.

DEPENDENCY OF FUTURE.

When we reflect that the future of this country depends largely upon the character of the coming generations, we see that it is criminal negligence to permit women wage earners to sacrifice health, mentally, and even life itself to the short-sighted policy of employers, and oftentimes labor makers, who do not realize that just treatment to employees brings its reward in dollars and cents, as well as in the consciousness of contributing to the welfare of humanity. A living wage and fair treatment is what women wage earners need, and for this they will continue their fight.

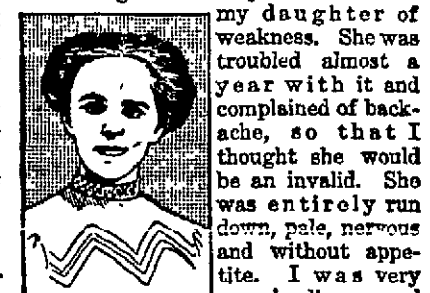

This is the broad doctrine that the American Federation of Labor preaches to its unions and to all citizens who are just enough to realize the importance of labor problems. Therefore minimum wage legislation is unacceptable to labor unions.

GIRLS WHO ARE PALE, NERVOUS

May Find Help in Mrs. Elston's Letter About Her Daughter.

Burlington, Iowa.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured my daughter of weakness. She was troubled almost a year with it and complained of backache, so that I thought she would be an invalid. She was entirely run down, pale, nervous and without appetite. I was very much discouraged but heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound through friends and now I praise it because it has cured my daughter."—Mrs. F. M. ELSTON, R. D. No. 3, Burlington, Iowa.

Case of Another Girl.

Scanton, Minn.—"I used to be bothered with nervous spells, and would cry if anyone was cross to me. I got awful weak spells especially in the morning, and my appetite was poor. I also had a tender place in my right side which pained when I did any hard work. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my symptoms all changed, and I am, certainly feeling fine. I recommend it to every suffering woman or girl. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Miss Ella OLSON, 171 5th St., Virginia, Minn.

Young Girls, Read This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting, or nervous indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FINLEY TO MAKE PLEA TO SULTAN HERE IS A REAL DYSPEPSIA CURE

Governor of Zamboanga Will Seek Religious Direction for Mohammedans.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Major John P. Finley, U. S. A., governor of the Zamboanga, Moro district, in the Philippines, left New York today aboard the Adriatic returning to his post. Major Finley will stop at Constantinople, where as minister plenipotentiary of the 800,000 Mohammedan Moros, he will present to the sultan of Turkey, as the head of their religion, a memorial praying religious direction.

Major Finley's mission, it is said, has been sanctioned by President Taft. In the memorial, the Moros declare that they have found conditions under the American government the best they have ever known, but that it is not very clear to them as to how church and state can be maintained separately. They want the assurance of the sultan that all is well so far as their religious status is concerned.

HILLES REWARDED FOR DEMOCRATIC SERVICE

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 13.—Charles D. Hilles, of Dobbs Ferry, secretary to President Taft and chairman of the Republican national committee, was appointed last night by Governor Sulzer as a member of the board of managers of the New York State Training School for Girls at Hudson. When the nomination was received in the Senate, Democratic Leader Wagner moved immediate confirmation.

"In view not only of the distinction Mr. Hilles has maintained as one of the citizens of this state," said Senator Wagner, "but also because of the very valued and valiant service he rendered the Democratic party in the last campaign, I move his immediate confirmation." The nomination was confirmed.

AMERICAN OFFICERS TO AID ECUADOR REPUBLIC

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The House yesterday passed a resolution to authorize Colonel William Gorgas, chief medical officer of the Panama canal zone, two other United States medical officers and three officers of the army engineers to accept service under the republic of Ecuador to supervise sanitary improvement in that country. The resolution also would authorize Colonel Gorgas and other officers to accept pay from Ecuador for work already done in Ecuador under orders from the war department.

GARRISON DOUBLED; RULING IS FEARED

HAVANA, Feb. 13.—According to the Cuban newspaper, the palace garrison has been notified of anticipation of the forthcoming decision of the Supreme Court, which, it is believed, will uphold the election of General Juan Mario Menocal to the presidency. An additional reason for this precaution is Cuban unrest over the anti-American spirit displayed in parts of Mexico.

FRUITVALE CLUBS WORKING JOINTLY FOR CONVENTION

JOHN STROTKAMP.

FRUITVALE, Feb. 18.—John Strotkamp, who has been elected vice president of St. Francis Benevolent society of Fruitvale, is one of its most active members. He is one of the leaders in the German Catholic community of Fruitvale, who are working to make the Catholic convention in Fruitvale a success.

HAYWARD WOULD ENLARGE ON AREA

Extension of Boundary Lines Is Sought; Town Trustees Called On.

HAYWARD, Feb. 18.—It is urged that the board of trustees take the necessary steps to call an election to enlarge the boundaries of the municipality. The Chamber of Commerce and other organizations are agreed as to the advisability of annexing surrounding areas, and the proposed new boundaries are already agreed upon.

As an incentive to immediate action on the part of the town trustees, it is pointed out that the school trustees of Hayward, San Lorenzo, and Mount Eden went ahead with the work of changing the school boundaries without any delay. Business men here think the time has come for Hayward to expand its territory. In anticipation of the forthcoming rush of immigrants at the time of the Panama-Pacific exposition.

C. ASHER, RICHMOND BOY, MURDERED AT YUMA

RICHMOND, Feb. 18.—A telegram was received this morning by Louis Asher, conveying the information that his brother Charles had been murdered in Yuma, Arizona. The message was brief and failed to give any details other than the fact that he had been shot in the head and that he had died instantly.

IMPROVEMENTS HELP APPEARANCE OF TOWN

FRUITVALE, Feb. 18.—A number of important improvements are being effected on East Fourteenth street in the Fruitvale district. The new safety station, already established by the local board of trade has been completed, and is both a useful and an ornamental adjunct to the district. The safety station is of the regulation size, and at each end are erected handsome bronze lamp standards.

ATHLETIC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

New Organization at Hayward Has Strong Membership at Beginning.

HAYWARD, Feb. 18.—Members of the newly formed Hayward Athletic club are to meet tonight to draw up rules and regulations for the organization. The officers of the club, who have been appointed are: President, Truman Ingalls; vice president, John Fickel; treasurer, Charles Meyer; financial secretary, George Oakes, Jr.; sergeant at arms, Walter Smith; pallbearer, Van Obermuller; recording secretary, Francis Wheeler.

PIN HIGH HOPES ON BASKETBALL

Business Men of Hayward and San Leandro, However, Postpone Match.

HAYWARD, Feb. 18.—The basketball game which is to be played between teams representing the business men of Hayward and San Leandro in order to wipe off a $150 debt incurred through the failure of the booster hat committee plans at the Cherry festival at San Leandro two years ago, is to be postponed from Washington's birthday to a date not yet fixed. This step is necessary owing to the inability of several of the stars of the teams to be present on that date.

A meeting of the business men of San Leandro and Hayward is to be called to make arrangements for the match, which is to be played on Saturday, Feb. 23, at the Hayward Athletic club. The idea of pitting the business men against one another in a benefit match, and who will probably be one of the San Leandro team will not have an opportunity of playing on Saturday, as it is to visit Truckee to participate in the snow sports there.

HAYWARD CARPENTERS UNION ELECTS OFFICERS

HAYWARD, Feb. 18.—The following officers have been elected by the local carpenters' union: President, C. W. Thurman; vice president, J. Dekker; treasurer, J. E. Lewis; financial secretary, W. T. FRUITVALE PARLOR DANCE.

FRUITVALE, Feb. 18.—A dance will be given by Fruitvale Parlor No. 252, Native Sons of the Golden West, at the Fruitvale, on February 22. This is one of a series of affairs arranged by a committee under the chairmanship of Edward Barthold.

Drive away germs with GOLD DUST

The modern surgeon carefully cleanses hands and instruments before and after every operation; he realizes the danger both to himself and his patient of any clinging germs.

Germs thrive and multiply wherever they can find a lodging place in grease and dirt, and where things are scrupulously clean they find it hard to live.

The easiest and surest way to keep things clean lies in the use of Gold Dust washing powder. Gold Dust goes deep after dirt and roots out every germ and hidden impurity. It is the sanitary cleanser.

Do not use Soap, Soda, Ammonia or Kerosene. Gold Dust has all desirable cleaning qualities, is perfectly harmless and leaves no film.

REPORT OF DEATH WAS EXAGGERATED

Andrew Anderson of Livermore Discovers That He Has "Passed."

LIVERMORE, Feb. 18.—Andrew Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, of Livermore, can say with Mark Twain that a report of his death was grossly exaggerated. Anderson, who left Livermore to work as a miner in Goldfield had a newspaper handed to him with a report of his death, giving details of his death, and how he met with a fatal accident. It turned out that a man of the same name and closely resembling Anderson was killed in the Montana mine, and this had led to the mistake being made.

TABLET WORKS BURNED.

QUINCY, Ill., Feb. 18.—The Dayton tablet works were destroyed by fire last night, with a loss estimated at $500,000.

RICHMOND NOTES

RICHMOND, Feb. 18.—Manager Carhart of the local telephone service is trying to arrange for a lower family rate to meet the demand of many families living in the suburban and suburban sections. At present the rate is $2.00 a month and many hardly like to stand such a high rate for telephone service. The rate is being lowered to $1.50 a month.

$50,000 SITE IS GIFT TO RICHMOND

George Wall Presents People With Whole Block for City Hall.

RICHMOND, Feb. 18.—At a meeting of the city council last night a magnificent gift was made to the city by the Harbor Center Land company, of which George S. Wall is president, and Miss Edith M. Wilbur, Yuba City, Cal., is vice president, of an entire block of land, valued at $50,000, for a city hall site. It was gratefully accepted by the council with thanks for the generous donation and appropriate speeches. The land lies practically in the center of the new addition being platted by the Harbor company, and is bounded by Nineteenth, Twentieth, Virginia and Maine streets. It is but one block off of Cutting boulevard and is an important business and residential portion of the city.

BUYS CHOICE LOT OF RICHMOND LAND

Oakland Man Invests in 24 Acres at Price Said to Be $1000 an Acre.

RICHMOND, Feb. 18.—James H. Forman, an Oakland capitalist, has purchased lot 46 of the San Pablo Ranch, this piece containing 24 acres and adjoins lot 47, containing 18 acres, which he has owned for some time. The purchase of this land has caused considerable concern of Oakland and Richmond, as it is believed that the land is being held for speculation. The price paid for the property is not known, but it is said to be in the neighborhood of $1000 an acre.

TAX ASSOCIATION WANTS DELEGATES

San Leandro Chamber of Commerce Asked to Send Two Delegates.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 18.—The local Chamber of Commerce has been called upon by the Alameda Tax association to select two delegates to meet other delegates from all parts of the county, who will confer with the Tax association with a view to putting county affairs on a more economical basis. San Leandro's representatives will be selected at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fendle Is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wise in herself who knows of the value of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, always all fear, banishes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happily in mind, free in body, and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

TRAVELING is a favorite diversion of the smart set at this time of the year, when it seems such a delightful task in the season of social duties just to pack one's trunk and go away for a short trip to other scenes, where one is free from the feeling of social obligations of any pressing nature. The spring, too, always seems to bring out the wanderlust in one's blood. If it is there at all, some who are spending a few weeks on these exhilarating little vacations have gone East, among them Mr. and Mrs. Wick, some have gone to the Southland, notably Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw.

Others are settling themselves in new homes before the opening of the later season, and others are attending to settling their summer homes in order for the vacation and that comes with the warmer weather. Mr. and Mrs. William Henshaw have just purchased a beautiful summer home, one of the most notable places in lovely Montecito, "Miramar." They have occupied the place during two seasons and became so attached to it that they obtained possession of it for a summer home. It is located on the valley road and is one of the show places of the Santa Barbara coast. It is an ideal home, with wide landscape gardens, and has a superb view of mountains, valley and sea.

AFFAIRS FOR FIANCEES. A number of delightful affairs are being planned in honor of Miss Priscilla Hall, the charming daughter of Judge and Mrs. Samuel P. Hall, and the fiancée of Donald McDougall of Manila. Mr. McDougall will arrive from his home in the Far East in the course of a week or so, and the wedding date will be announced after his arrival. Among those who are sending out cards for complimentary affairs is Miss Helen Neal, who will give a bridge luncheon on March 2, and Miss Elva Ghrardelli, who has asked a number of the younger set to a card party at her home on Monday, February 24. Miss Emma Lamcke will send out cards for a luncheon at which she will entertain for Miss Hall March 8.

RETURN FROM DEL MONTE. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Thurston Robson have returned to the college town from Del Monte, where they have been spending their honeymoon. The wedding of Miss Frances Shattuck Woolsey and Edward Robson was an event of a few weeks ago at the Hotel Shattuck in Berkeley. The date chosen for the affair is March 28, and the invitations will be issued in about a week. Several of the society matrons who are members of the club will act as hostesses at the Del Monte dance. Among them will be Mrs. Edwin Carlisle Williams, Mrs. John R. Oakley, Mrs. George Hoyt and Mrs. A. C. Craven. The Northbrae club entertained with a delightful affair just back the close of the season, with pleasure to several hundred guests with a well planned affair.

SONG RECITAL PLANNED. Mrs. Waldeck Biers is planning to give a song recital on the evening of March 1 in Unity Hall in Berkeley. A varied program of German, Italian and American compositions will be presented, assuring an evening of more than usual interest to those who attend. Mrs. Biers will be accompanied by Mrs. E. E. Young of San Francisco.

DANCE IN ALAMEDA. About fifty of the younger girls are receiving cards for the dance at which Miss Pauline Turner will be hostess next Saturday evening. She will entertain her young friends at her home in Alameda.

LUNCHEON AT ROSECREST. Cards have been sent out by Miss Florence Henshaw for a luncheon over which she will preside Wednesday afternoon, February 26, at Rosecrest, the handsome Henshaw home in Vernon Heights. Miss Madeline Clay, whose marriage to Warren Harvold will be one of the important events of the spring season, will be the guest of honor, and the guests will include a few of the closest friends of the hostess and her complemented guests. The cotillion of society maids will attend the matinee after the luncheon.

TO ATTEND WEDDING. Miss Grace Layman will leave for Sacramento tomorrow morning to attend the wedding of Miss Corinne Dillman and Joseph Upham Freeman, which will take place tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dillman, the bride's parents. It will be a large and elaborate ceremony, with a number of bridal attendants, among them Miss Nina Hellbron, sister-in-law of Mrs. Henry Hellbron Jr., who was Miss Hazel Layman. Miss Layman will visit her sister while in the capital city.

LEAVING FOR SOUTH. Miss Marjorie Stanton will depart during the week for a brief stay in Los Angeles, making the trip to the city for the purpose of attending the wedding of Miss Olive Trask and Allen L. Leonard, at which she will be one of the attendants. Miss Helen Weston of Berkeley will also attend the wedding. The wedding will take place on February 26, and Miss Stanton will enjoy a few days of gaiety in the south before returning home. She is the fiancée of Arnold Weber of Berkeley, the marriage being set for March 12. The charming young girl was the guest of honor at a luncheon to which Miss Myra Johnson had bidden a dozen friends yesterday.

LUNCHEON NEXT SATURDAY. Mrs. Roy Maynard has asked a number of friends to be her guests next Saturday afternoon, when she will entertain in honor of Miss Dorothy Peterson, whose engagement to Raymond Styles Fuller of Los Angeles was announced recently. Mrs. Maynard's hospitality will take the form of a luncheon.

Last Saturday afternoon Miss Mildred Dodge entertained with a pretty affair in honor of Miss Peterson, the guests including thirty girls of the Delta Gamma sorority. Measewerk and tea occupied the pleasant afternoon. Miss Dodge and Miss Peterson are both members of the sorority.

AFFAIRS FOR VISITORS. Mrs. Bert Combs entertained this afternoon with an informal sewing tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. Wallace Davis of Eugene, Oregon, who is visiting in Alameda. Mrs. Davis will also be a guest of honor at a luncheon to which Mrs. Combs has invited a number of friends tomorrow. She is a member of the Trans-Gray Society and a number of the guests will cross the bay from this side. Mrs. Davis will spend several weeks in the bay section before returning to her northern home.

CHARITY BRIDGE AND WHIST. Mrs. Solomon Kahn, president of "The Daughters of Israel Relief Society," has appointed the following committee to arrange for a bridge and whist tournament to take place in her spacious residence, 659 Oakland avenue, on Wednesday, February 19, at 2 o'clock: Mrs. M. Falk, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs. H. S. Manning, Mrs. L. Schwartz, Mrs. H. K. Zeimer, Mrs. F. Schwarzbach, Mrs. L. Schuman, Mrs. R. Aimeyer, Mrs. S. Ehrlich.

The committee have secured some very handsome prizes and a general good time is assured. Parties desiring to secure private tables can do so by applying direct to Mrs. Kahn. This organization is the leading charity society for the relief of poor Jewish people on the coast, being in existence over 35 years.

TRAVELERS HERE AND THERE. Miss Cora Rith, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney V. Smith, is spending the early spring in the wonderful Yosemite Valley. She is with a party of friends whose home is in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodhead will close their Berkeley home in May and will depart for Europe. They are planning to spend the summer abroad. Miss Gwendolen Woodward will accompany them.

Among those who are enjoying a stay at Catalina Island is Mrs. George Neilus, who has been so impressed with the beauty of the island in the early spring season that she has decided to prolong her stay there instead of making a trip to the Hawaiian Islands, as she planned earlier in the season.

ENTERTAIN SATURDAY. Miss Anita C. Jamieson was a hostess at her Alameda home Saturday, entertaining in honor of Mrs. R. Volney Jones, Miss Sue Parker. Mrs. Jones was Miss Alma Heaton before her marriage. Those who were asked to meet the complimented guests for the pleasant occasion were Miss Minnie Byrne, Miss Alva Phelps, Miss Elizabeth Dickinson, Miss Mattie Bacon, Miss Florence Hosken, Miss Marion Elwood, Miss Hazel Livingston, Miss Clara White, Miss Elsie Foren, Miss Edwina Harris, Miss Edith Harris, Miss Joyce Elberich, Miss Dorothy Birbeck, Miss Josephine Harlow and Miss Nell Jamieson.

LUNCHEON TOMORROW. Mrs. Howard Kennedy will be a hostess at a luncheon tomorrow at the home of her sister, Mrs. Roy L. Ollam, entertaining the members of a sewing club at a pleasant affair. The table will be decked with red geraniums and greenery. Among the guests will be Mrs. H. M. Ruber, Mrs. Alvin Goodman, Mrs. John Bass, Mrs. Dick Atkinson, Mrs. Oranith McFarland and Mrs. Roy Gilliam.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Feldman in Kirkham street was the scene of a pleasant occasion Sunday evening when a number of their friends were entertained in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. After an elaborate dinner the guests enjoyed an event of dancing and music. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. Beech, Mr. and Mrs. W. Trantch, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Fox, Mr. A. Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. C. Merriam, Mr. and Mrs. G. Steffens, Everett Steffens, Mrs. C. Pope, Fred Pope, Anna Pope, H. Tinsfeldt of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. D. Knabe, Jurgen Knabe, Henry Knabe, Mrs. C. Billebach, George and Lester Billebach, Mrs. M. Person, Wilson and Irving Person, Mr. and Mrs. H. Witt, Miss Witt, Mrs. M. Witt, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Marshall, Harold and Frank Marshall Jr., Mr. T. Kaiser, Miss A. Schumacher, Miss A. Lenah, Mrs. M. J. Fox, Mrs. C. Brener, Mrs. A. Feldman, Henry, Walter and George Feldman, Miss Tillie Feldman, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Feldman, Leon, Henry and Margaret Feldman.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED. Two friends whose birthdays were the same as her own were the guests of honor at a delightful affair given by Mrs. M. Matthews of California street last Thursday evening, when a large party of friends gathered to celebrate the occasion of the sixtieth birthday of Mrs. Matthews. Mrs. Teppie and Mrs. Elford. The rooms of the home were decorated with greenery and flowers in a color scheme of red and white. Among those who enjoyed the pleasant evening were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Olsen, Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Matthews, Mrs. George Tindall, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brockman, Mrs. Eckelston, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pickles, Mrs. Elford, H. Olsen, Mrs. Teppie, Mrs. F. Tyndall and others.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

GIRL CRAZED OVER OPERA STAR IS SUICIDE

Daughter of Rich Iron Man Ends Life; Mary Garden Her Mania.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—Helen Newby, 19 years old, daughter of John Newby, one of the wealthiest iron men of this State, whose country home is at Hector Mills, between here and Harrisburg, committed suicide yesterday because of a mad craze over Mary Garden.

Miss Newby was a sentimentalist. Day after day she haunted the Ritz-Carlton last week, just to be near Miss Garden. She attended every performance of the opera and stood at times at the stage door of the Metropolitan Opera House to get a glimpse of the woman she adored.

She studied theosophy to learn if there was no occult art that could transform her so that she might become a part of Miss Garden's life. So great a hold did this passion have over her that she told her friends she believed that she was Cleopatra's maid reincarnated, and that as such she was to become a harem and place herself in the service of the opera singer.

Miss Newby had prepared for Bryn Mawr, but two years ago gave up this ambition to learn hair dressing and manicuring, and studied French so that she might become Miss Garden's maid. She had even learned to smoke cigarettes and drink cocktails, as she had been told that these were necessities of stage existence.

Decries Legislation

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—Legislative work is essentially bad for women, Mrs. Helen Moore declared yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Juvenile Protective Association.

"It means hopping up and hopping down; sometimes in rooms that are too hot, sometimes in rooms that are too cold, you must see three men and by the time you finish with one the other two have disappeared."

"It is wearing and tearing," continued Mrs. Moore. "I hope you will do all you can to assist your representative in Sacramento. She has a hard task."

Mrs. Moore spoke strongly in favor of the bill for making the public schools social centers.

The afternoon was occupied with discussions.

"Free kindergartens in the Public Schools" was the first subject, the principal speaker being Mrs. E. N. Rowell, president of the California Congress of Mothers.

"We want the State of California to establish a splendid system of education for children from 4 to 6 years of age. The early impressions of childhood are the permanent ones, and it is impossible to teach later what can be easily taught at a tender age."

She told of the growth of the kindergarten movement in the public schools of the country and said it had become the one essential necessary to the perfection of the educational system.

It was moved by Mrs. William Nicoll that the Juvenile Protective Association endorse the legislative measure making the kindergarten a part of the regular public school system of the State. Unanimous approval was given.

Husband Insane

SAN JOSE, Feb. 12.—A story which is said to parallel in narrative the recent published narrative of the first marriage of Josephine Clifford McCracken, associate of nationally-known California writers and herself an author of note, was unfolded on the witness stand before Superior Judge Richards today during the hearing of the application of Ella M. Cramer of Santa Clara for a writ annulling her marriage with George E. Cramer, a well-known contractor.

Evidence was adduced to show that Cramer was insane before his marriage, although he successfully concealed the fact from his associates. Attaches of the court listened with amazement as the picture of the discovery of his husband's unbalanced mental condition on her wedding night.

"He told me that he had a confession to make," she said. "I asked him what it was, and he replied that when a boy he had stolen half a dozen eggs and was preyed upon by his mind. He also told me he had killed a black cat and its spirit had come back to haunt him. He proposed that we do together. The next morning he was apparently all right, but during the nine years I lived with him I never felt safe. He threatened many times to kill me."

"Another time he chopped down a beautiful ornamental tree in the yard without any reason, and when I asked him why he turned, and throwing his arms about me, sobbed like a child."

She stated that she left her husband because physicians advised her that it was unsafe to live with him. For a time she had him in a mental hospital, but now he is in a local hospital. She was asked why she did not leave him earlier and replied that she pitied him because of his condition, and because she thought he had never been happy and also because she loved him. Her 7-year-old daughter by a previous marriage and hated to leave the child. She was granted the decree desired.

Costly Necklace

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The best jeweler in New York are at work on the design for a $10,000 diamond necklace which Washington women are going to give Mrs. W. H. Taft as a token of their appreciation of the manner in which, as they say, she has saved the country.

formed her social duties. She has been appointed a committee of one to look after this detail and came to New York this morning to place the order. The form which the gift will take was decided at a meeting in Washington. The cost will be defrayed by a large number of women who have been entertained by Mrs. Taft and who have had her as a guest at their homes.

What form the necklace will take is a secret. It will be unlike the necklace Mrs. Taft wears now, and which she has worn to those who have attended White House receptions.

The gift was to have been kept a secret. It was arranged that even the donors should not know the form it was to take until the last moment, but the news leaked out.

WHY CATCH COLD?

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell

EVERY one should know, if he does not, that people who remain indoors are more liable to take colds than those who make it a rule to go out of doors for two or three hours each day in any and all kinds of weather. Nothing is more disastrous to beauty than a cold in the head. Nothing can cause more discomfort than a sore throat. But I would prefer even that to a bad case of influenza. The whole secret of health is the power of resistance. If the body is in good physical condition, if the digestion is perfect and the blood pure, no fear of disease need trouble man, woman or child. Laborers who work out of doors and people who sleep out on balconies never suffer from colds. There is far more danger in overheated rooms than the open air.

Where there is a great strain of mental activity, as in the cases of clerks and seamstresses, with little muscular exercise, the action of the heart is made faster by the pressure of work. But at the same time there are no muscular movements to relieve the strain upon the heart by the muscular emptying of the veins, and there is little or nothing to promote deep breathing to help the heart in keeping up the circulation. The mental worker, together with the man or woman who sits all day performing monotonous mechanical acts, suffers the condition of a high blood pressure and quite early in life the circulation is severely hindered, and many forms of disease set in unless when the day's work is ended vigorous out-of-doors exercises are taken.

When deep breathing is indulged in, either at an open window or out of doors, when the blood circulates through the veins by means of deep breathing and plenty of fresh air in the lungs, then the system has resistance against all diseases. Catching cold is not so much a sign that there has been great exposure as it is that the body has no resistance to even a small amount of exposure. To avoid taking colds one must keep in good health; accustom one's self to every kind of temperature. Suppose one does get cold, there is no danger if one never overheats one's stomach by too high living.

I am more afraid of a hot room than of being out in a severe storm. Fresh air is a cure for almost any disease. So if you are suffering with a severe attack of influenza, go out into the air and walk briskly for at least an hour. You may sneeze when you strike the air, but sneezing is healthy. Few understand the real meaning of the German phrase, "gesundheit." It means good health and in Germany they hail a good sneezing spell with delight. If you become warm and perspire from your walk, jump into a tub of warm water when you return home and sponge off with cold water. You will then be more able to throw off or resist a cold than you can imagine. Remember, a case of influenza can make the most angelic beauty look like a Billikin.

MILLIE H.—The rule for determining the amount of food that one should take is to eat only enough to leave one's self a feeling of satisfaction and well-being and not eat too little or too much. One can know when one is eating too little from the fact that there is a tissue which has been stretched and supports all skins, the destruction of which occasions sagging muscles and wrinkles.

ADMIRER.—To make the hands and arms more plump gentle massage with warm cocoa butter will be found to be effective. To massage the arms begin either at the wrist or elbow and massage with a circular motion. Do not do this too hard. At night apply orange flower skin food and put on a pair of loose fitting kid gloves. If you have chapped and cracked hands, use a good quality of skin cream. I shall gladly send you instructions for developing the bust.

SCHOOL AND PLAYGROUND

GIRL IS HOSTESS AT SEWING BEE

An industrious set of girls assembled at the home of Evelyn Hennings recently to enjoy a sewing bee, which was conducted by the young hostess.

Among the club members who accepted the hospitality of Evelyn were Martha Gallagher, Elaine Fownall, Ruth Owen, Eleanor Proffie, Adele Crist, Marcella Collins, Elizabeth Garretson and Grace Ziegenfuss.

The girls were busy for several hours, and the sewing bee was a great success.

The girls were busy for several hours, and the sewing bee was a great success.

FAST GAMES ARE PLAYED BY BASKETBALL TEAMS

The Bushrod 100-pound team lined up against the Presidio Heights Playground team in a very fast game of basketball last Saturday morning. The two teams were very evenly matched, but the condition of the Bushrod team won out in the second half by a score of 15 to 8. The Bushrod players were as follows: Hunter, N. De Soto, J. Victor, C. Noel De Soto, McNeill, G.

This aggregation of basketball players is anxious to meet any 100-pound team around the bay. In the afternoon the Bushrod 120-pound team took the Franklin team into camp by a score of 16 to 11. It was one of the closest and most exciting ever seen on the local court. O'Connor and Durkee did the star playing for Bushrod, while Cottrell and Wilson did some clever work for the Franklin team.

The teams lined up as follows: Bushrod—Durkee (captain), C. Allen, C. O'Connor, C. Schaefer, J. Barr, Franklin—Weyler, Cottrell, J. Pavliger, C. Reinhardt, Wilson, capt., S. Saturday afternoon the Bella Vista 130-pound team journeyed to De Fremery, where they played one of the fastest and hardest games ever seen on the De Fremery court. The Bella Vista team showed rare class in shooting baskets and in the team work.

DE FREMERY TEAM. Too much, however, cannot be said for the De Fremery aggregation who put up a game fight in the face of tremendous odds. The difference in the score, 45 to 25, by no means indicates the relative merits of the two teams. It would be hard to pick any one man from the Bella Vista players and say that he was the best player, as the team is an aggregation of stars, and on Saturday every player showed to advantage.

The Bella Vista team lined up as follows: Gardner, C. Boyer, J. Drew, C. Lawson, G. Van Franklin, C. These played the star game for De Fremery, and all did some of the good work and was largely responsible for keeping down the score. Fred Smith played a very creditable game, as did also Kendall and Anthony Smith.

The De Fremery 125-pound team took a trip to Bella Vista, where they showed that they have one of the fastest teams in the league by defeating the Bella Vista team of that weight by a score of 38 to 6, this being the first shot out game of the league.

The forward division Lottner and Baptista are marvels at passing and basket shooting. It would indeed be hard to find two more such players in their class who could duplicate their performance with the ball in the game on Saturday, the latter getting the majority of the baskets. At center Captain Steinmetz started the ball off with dash and skill, and in the meantime making as many as the work of Smith and Dossard was perfection, these two players being largely responsible for the team's success.

Others team. Gilbert, who also played part of the game at guard, showed some class. Captain Steinmetz says that this team is sure to take high honors in the league, as they feel confident that they can defeat any team in the league.

OWENSMOUTH BABES. On Sunday the Owensmouth Babes met their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Azores Grays. Prior to that date the Babes won from the Lenhards in a thirteen inning game, the score ending 9 to 8. Fincher and Steinmetz engaged in pitching duel, each striking out 13 men. The Babes lined up as follows: Kendall, ss.; Theus, lf.; Gerlach, 3b.; Thompson, rf.; Haesloot, cf.; Moore, 2b.; Marshall, 1b.; Hennrichsen, c.; Steinmetz, p.

ATHLETIC TESTS. As the 27th draws near, the date at which the mediaeval and modern sports of the Athletic tests will be awarded every boy is trying his best to gain possession of one of the coveted medals. The medal game, which is a game of skill and endurance, is one of the most popular of the tests and has so far completed the tests as follows:

Bronze—Berliola, Gullen, Cross, Duffy, Dooley, Hivickick, Landis, Lsten, Meade, McNally, Williams, Silver—Duddy, Thompson, Welan, Hyman.

Gold—Gilbert, Kendrick, Nelson, Turner.

BOYS' EXPOSITION BAND TO HAVE BIG REPERTOIRE. To arrange a repertoire of 1000 pieces is the desire of the Oakland Boys' Exposition band, which is working under the leadership of Prof. John Smith. At the present time the band have a program of 80 selections, which include popular and classical music.

The boys' band of the First Baptist Church of this city will give a concert Thursday evening in the auditorium of the church, Telegraph avenue and Jones street. The entertainment will be open to the public and will be the first demonstration of its kind by the youth of the Sunday school.

George H. Smith, the band's director, is confident that the Exposition band will be a tremendous success and will be an interesting feature of the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

REDLIGHT LAW IS UP FOR DISCUSSION

Alameda Civic Center Holds Mass Meeting to Arouse General Interest.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 18. — The redlight infamy and abatement act was discussed in detail last night at a mass meeting held by Alameda, center of the California Civic league in Adelinehall hall.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. T. H. Haddy, president of Alameda center. The speakers were:

Edwin F. Grant, Assemblyman Alfred I. Morgenstern, Dr. Sara E. Wise, Miss Anna Chase and Christopher Ruess. All of the speakers urged the audience to lend its support to the proposed law calculated to regulate the social evil.

Mr. Grant pleaded strongly in favor of the law and the measure and opposed the segregation scheme. The white slave traffic was prominently mentioned as one of the striking nature being cited by the speakers.

Senator Grant explained that the proposed measure struck where the money was made, and that it was a law of property. It also places in the hands of the people the power which the rule did not place, district attorneys as a rule did not place. The law would organized slave traffic could not exist without some open place protected by law.

Dr. Wise said that she was the secretary of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, said that if the social evil is not stopped it was not necessary. If it is necessary to stop it, it is necessary to declare it was difficult to conceive of a "God of justice making any evil necessary." The speaker said that the women coming to the meeting in all their affairs that the social evil would not longer be a segregated or regulated evil but a free evil.

"It will not be continued in a semi-legal way because of man," declared

INROAD ON NATION.

Dr. Sara E. Wise spoke from the standpoint of a physician and said "The social evil makes a more awful inroad on the nation than all other contagious or communicative diseases. It is a cancer on the body politic and should be handled without gloves. The great trust which are interwoven with it are appalling and industrial conditions are fac-

Dr. Wise expressed herself as opposed to sex education in the schools without proper supervision, adding that a physician should be in charge of the work.

Probation Officer Christopher Ruess reviewed the history of the abatement act and said that it had grown from the liquor law. He claimed that the measure had proved much more effective.

The one who visits the tenderloin has the mind, the eye and the thought of the tenderloin." He deprecated the idea that a young man must sow wild oats.

Assemblyman Morgenstern announced his complete endorsement of the measure and urged his auditors to use their influence in support of the measure. He undecided that some of the legislators were being influenced against the measure by organizations friendly to the red-light district and the social evil idea. He showed that strong forces were fighting the measure and that it was vitally necessary for the friends of the proposed law to lend active help to insure its passage.
